THERE'S TOO MUCH OF THIS ALREADY

There has been a bit of comment about a proposal made in congress to permit weekly newspaper publishers to take two weeks off without losing their mailing permit. Charley Sprague in his daily Salem Statesman wrote a comment on it praising the idea for giving the hard working country editor an opportunity for vacation.

Now Charley Sprague realizes the responsibility a newspaper has as well as any and better than most. He knew that no editor worth reading was going to leave his paper for a two week vacation just because a lazy-minded congress made it possible. We're going vacation silly in this country anyway.

When anyone undertakes the publication of a newspaper he assumes a responsibility—the responsibility of printing the news, the advertisements, and of making such comment thereon as his ability permits. If he doesn't do it very well perhaps he should have stayed with sheep herding, which is another honorable occupation. But if he does his best he is entitled to an E for effort.

When however, he deliberately walks off the job for a couple weeks in the shade without leaving someone to keep his job going he is on a sit-down strike and his sin is unpardonable. Some one long ago said that there was much freedom in the newspaper business but none from it. That is true and those who are interested in their job will see that the presses roll on press day whether legally necessary or not.

MORO MATTERS

Weather for the week has not been comfortable because it has been too warm. However it has been satisfactory for harvesting.

George Kruger is here from his home near The Dalles to work in harvest for Stan Coelsch.

Mrs. Collis Moore was in Portland Saturday to take part in the reception held that afternoon for Republicans who gathered for the fund-raising dinner held Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Morgan accompanied their daughter Mrs. Thelma Dimmick of Kennewick, Wash., and daughter Mrs. Rena Ransier of The Dalles to McMinnville for the funeral of Mr. Morgan's brother, Will.

Mrs. Carroll Sayrs took her grandson Tom Coats, to Portland where they saw "Pinafore" at the Holladay bowl Friday night.

Mrs. Madames Kerrone Christianson, Ruth Sparling and Dorothea Moore were hostesses Tuesday at a bridal shower at the Moore home honoring Miss Evelyn Kirkelle, whose wedding will be an event of August 23. Saturday Gwen Ross, Althea Burnet, Pauline Douma and Zella Kenny will be hostesses at a similar shower honoring Miss Kirkelle.

EXCISE TAXES $1.80 PER MONTH

Last year, Federal Excise Taxes paid by the average telephone subscriber in the Pacific West came to about $1.80 a month.

THE EXCISE TAX IN YOUR TELEPHONE BILL

We collect it from you for the Federal Government

Perhaps you've wondered, "What does the amount marked 'U. S. Tax' on my telephone bill really mean?" Simply, it's the Federal Excise Tax which is levied directly on your local and long distance telephone calls. While this tax is included as a part of the total amount of your telephone bill, it's actually a separate tax which you pay on your telephone service. We merely collect it from our customers for the government — and it is then set aside to be passed along to the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

On the job for pennies a call

Despite sharply increased costs — for taxes, wages and materials — we've been able to keep telephone rates low. So low, in fact, that your telephone still carries your messages for a few pennies a call.

YOUR TELEPHONE IS ONE OF TODAY'S BEST BARGAINS

Paying the cost of government is, of course, the responsibility of all Americans and all American businesses. As a company, Pacific Telephone pays — and expects to pay — its full share of regular income and property taxes. But the Excise Tax is a separate tax — which you pay — averaging about $22 a year for the average telephone subscriber in the West. And we make this report on it so that next time you receive your telephone bill, you'll perhaps pause to consider that telephone rates are lower than you may have thought.
