Sheriff Norman Fields has returned this week after his vacation.

Walter Doerflinger of Carmichael, California was cruising along Monday near DeMoss when a passenger in a met car called fire. The engine stopped at the same time. When the sheriff's office was notified a fire truck went to the scene in time to put out the fire before the tires were burned or the contents of the trunk destroyed. Saved also was a parrot which must have felt his vocabulary somewhat limited to describe his sentiments. Doerflinger went back to California by bus leaving word for the insurance company.

The federal civil service commission announces examination for substitute postal clerk in the Moro office at a rate of $1,364 1/2 per hour. Applicants must file with the director at 302 Federal Office Building, Seattle, Wash., not later than September 14. Post master Johnson says that such examinations are being given all over this area whether the position is filled or not.

Mrs. Lena Hansen, widow of the late Martin Hansen, and her daughter, Ruth Chaffin of El Paso, Texas, were here the first of the week to visit with Mrs. Ora Peetz. The Hansens were long time Sherman countians.

Vernon Platt returned to Portland Monday and is expected to remain there for three or four weeks in the care of a doctor. His heart condition is not so bad Mrs. Platt reports, but he is suffering from nervous exhaustion.

Books placed on the "Memorial Shelf" of the Moro Public Library in memory of Mrs. Mary Higley are as follows:

"Cowboy Boots" - Garst - the story of a boy's experiences on a ranch in Wyoming.
"The Secret of the Old Sam-pey Place" and "Surprise at Sampey Place" both by Frances Wright.

These are girls' books telling of the interesting experience of Judy on a farm.

"The Bounces of Cynthann" by Evelyn S. Lampman - the story of four orphans, the oldest fourteen, who came to Oregon by stage coach and boat, to live with an uncle, who in the meantime had died.

"Horton Hatches the Egg" by Dr. Seuss, an amusing story for young children, cleverly illustrated.

"Westward the Women" by Nancy Wilson Ross. This is a book about women of every kind and sort who accompanied or followed their men across the continent. It presents the theme of woman's share in this major American experience.

A THOUGHT OF GRATEFULNESS

In MEMORIAM - The passing of ORA LEWELLEN ZELL - June 29, 1953 - aged 72 years.

Dear Friends—

Your flowers, a token of affection for her, and words of condolence to us—are ours to cherish—and yet, the heart throbs of empty arms, and regretful heart crowd in up on us—as we grope our way alone.

Some meaningful word is given by Fraternal Friends, which we beg to offer—as "an ECHO" of her passing, and from the destiny, which we hope is hers.

May they express encouragement to you, and our appreciation to those who were kind and thoughtful to her, as she in obscurity lived the last eight years of her stay among us—

The "ECHO"—AS OPE'S THE GATES to ETERNITIES SHORES. At the end of the road, there is an open gate, Through which each of us must pass to our reward, AS our FATHER - Claims His own.

Beyond those gates - may our loved ones - "and we in our turn," Find rest and happiness - and we - The loving thought - that God Knows best.

Our continuing prayer - May He be kind to her, who has gone on before us. To her - who lives in our heart - and to friends of many years - we say - ALOHA -

Aloha means "fair" well - Aloha means "good" bye until we meet again - beneath a smiling sky. Aloha means "good" morning - we always will be true, but - "best of all" - It means - I LOVE YOU - I LOVE YOU - (Author unknown to us)

To her - the Madonna of our heart enshrined - "as to every wife and mother should be"— In the garden of our hearts, grows - A ROSE - its fragrance - "like God's love divine" its pungence exuded - "EVER-LASTING" - is wafted to eternity; Aloha's Golden Shore, there - partings are abandon' beneath the peaceful skies, of Gods eternal morning."

As she lived—she scattered—sunshine and gladness, grew roses and scattered their petals, a long her way. "Like dew of morning—its blessings, unheeded, untold, as, unfolds the life of a rose—though in obscurity of unpretentious - security, its fragrance "none the less" - wafted along of Gods endurance. It accomplishes its mission—"IN GIVING ITS ALL"—She - died - in that faith, as in confidence—she lived.

To Martha Theis, Azalea Rebekah and Columbia lodges - L.O.O.F. - Spencer and Libby - funeral directors - and all the friends - we extend our most humble gratitude - for continuity of purpose.

And so, we say for her - and to YOU - Aloha - Aloha - until we meet again - beneath a cloudless sky.

By - he who was privileged to walk "beside her adown through 48 years, the last past eight of which were "The Best of all."

Our apology—we feel that we owe, to her friends and to her - friends, a "Lasting Debt" we try to express herein - that WE NEVER CAN REPAY—it can only be ours of undeserved gratuity to cherish - may all humanity - SHARE - in appreciation and sanctity of woman-hood.

Most Sincerely,

How to reach the phone before it stops ringing

Rrrrring—there goes the phone. And before you can get to it from another part of the house, it stops ringing. But—with a handy extension telephone, you can take calls anywhere in the house! This convenience costs just a few pennies a day. And extensions are now available everywhere because they require no outside cables, wires, or central office facilities. For complete details about a new extension telephone in your home... call your Pacific Telephone business office.

in an emergency...

your party-line neighbor may cut in on your telephone conversation and ask you to release the line. He'll surely appreciate it if you allow him to use the phone. And you may need the same courtesy in an emergency of your own.
