

Moro Personals

We need to make an explanation. Last week we reported that a daughter had been born to Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart. That was wrong. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bon Christianson. At least we did get the right grandmother. The new daughter, who has been named Beverly Ann is back from the hospital. Her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Stanek of The Dalles. Mr. and Mrs. Stan Drew left this week for Forest Grove, all the towers having been erected for the McNary-Maupin line through this county. An appropriation for money with which to construct the other half of the double line through this county is still in the Department of Interior budget and if eventually passed, another line will be started soon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Parker have received word that their daughter, Mrs. E. E. Craig of Huntington Park, Calif., will be singing with the chorus, over NBC coast to coast 7:30 - 8:00 p. m. Easter Sunday. They will sing from "The Messiah".

Mr. and Mrs. Asa A. Robley and sons of Corvallis were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Alley. Mrs. Robley, is a sister of Mrs. Alley. Little Freddie, age 19 months stayed for a longer visit with his aunt and uncle.

Remember! Every Easter Seal you buy helps a crippled child. This non-profit organization depends entirely upon you for its support. It is with gratefulness that we can report up to April 10 the amount of $396.50 has been given. There is still a few more days to go before the drive closes. April 18 states Mrs. John Parker, county chairman. So, if you have not yet contributed there is still time.

U. S. Marshal Harold Sexton was in the county Monday on official business. He used to be a Wasco county sheriff. Mr. and Mrs. Clair Axtell will leave Saturday for their new home near Amity. Flatt's truck will take their furniture down that day and Gerald Blagg will move into their new home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Free Crews came up last Wednesday to remain here a week on business and visiting with friends and relatives.

Tuesday night Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barium were hosts to a dinner party honoring Mr. Barium and Mrs. Giles French, whose birthdays are the same day. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hoskinson and Mr. and Mrs. Free Crews.

Lester King of Athena was in the county Wednesday looking for a location for a plant from which to distribute nitrogen fertilizer.

Mrs. Robert Fairfield of Walnut Park, Calif., and her youngest son Ricky, were here last week for the funeral of her grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Schaeffer. Bill McLachlan, now recovering from a broken leg in the Veterans' hospital in Portland says that it is the finest hospital he has been in and with the best and most entertainment.

Rebekahs met Tuesday night and elected delegates to the state

Mrs. Marion Weatherford, state president talked, as did her husband, a member of the Upper Columbia Water resources board, the work of which was his subject.

Everett Kirliele was taken to the hospital Tuesday with a high fever although it was not known what caused it.

Rufus Personals

By Mrs. George Fox

Nineteen members and two guests were present when Mrs. Sam Brock entertained the Rufus grange Home Economics club at her home Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Rolland Johnson was co-hostess and helped serve the desert luncheon of molded salad, crackers and coffee. The tables were decorated with little chickens and rabbits with Easter colors. The centerpiece was of daffodils.

Mrs. Lee Dehler and Mrs. Lester Gray were guests of the club. Mrs. Bill O'Brien, chairman, opened the business meeting. Roll call was on housecleaning hints. Members voted to send a small donation to the Spense Memorial and Muscular Dystrophy association of America funds.

A letter was received from Mrs. Earl Gentry asking for donations of cup cakes and cookies to use at the Blood Bank held in Moro Tuesday. Those volunteering to donate were Mrs. Rolland Johnson, Mrs. Joe Morris, Mrs. Tom Jacobson, Mrs. Fred Dormaler, Mrs. George Fox, Mrs. Bill O'Brien, Mrs. Joe Drinkard and Mrs. Walt Morris.

The club will have display tables at the next two grange meetings. For April Mrs. Rolland Johnson, Mrs. Bill Huck, Mrs. Bill O'Brien and Mrs. Sam Brock will fix the displays. Mrs. Walt Morris turned in a set of tea towels and a pair of pillow cases and Mrs. Bill O'Brien two woven pan holders for the hope chest the club is going to fill. The May meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Joe Morris. Mrs. but none of the farmers think Walter Bruckert will put on a cake decorating demonstration for the club that day.

Secret pals were revealed and new names drawn. In a couple of instances much to their amusement, two members found they were pals to each other. Mrs. Harry Adams, lecturer reported she received $3.86 at the white elephant sale last week. This is a fund for the lecturers use.

Mrs. Walt Morris gave a quip and then she and Mrs. Harland McDonald each gave a reading for the program.

The Community card club met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Tom Macnab. Three tables of pin-ochle were in play. Mrs. Kenneth Fridley received high prize and Mrs. F. W. Macnab consolation. Guests of the club were Mrs. Clem Welk, Mrs. Ir. Fridley and Mrs. Afton McIntyre. Refreshments of lemon delight and coffee were served. Then the members stayed until they saw the late movie finish on television. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Chester Coats in May.

The Rufus high school three act play "Everybody's Crazy Now" was given Friday night. All characters were well chosen by the director Mrs. Doris Morin. During intermission Michael O'Brien and Jimmy Fox gave impersonations of two hicks going to the city. After the play the students had a party in the school cafeteria, and later went to Phyllis Steward's house to dance.

Some showers have fallen since the middle of last week. Before the showers, we had freezing nights and cold winds. The frost turned a lot of the wheat yellow, home of Mrs. Joe Morris. Mrs. but none of the farmers think Walter Bruckert will put on a it has hurt the crown of the wheat, and that it will snap out of it when warm weather comes along. The barley wasn't up high enough to get frosted in most cases. The fruit at Rufus is definitely all hurt to a certain extent. The farmers say the blossoms that were out were hurt, but more blooms came out after the frost and it is these they think may have some fruit, although in some cases, they say the buds were hurt by the frost also. This takes in apricots, peaches and cherries for this area.

Now that it has warmed up, perhaps the crops can grow a little. The pastures are so short for the middle of April. The rains made the John Day river muddy last weekend.

Miss Shelly Jungert who came from Clarkston, Washington recently was a guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrison of Twin Bridges. The little girl made the trip via bus by herself in care of the driver.

Mrs. Lola Foster came from Portland to see her grand daughter, Lola Johnson, play the part of the maid in the high school play at Rufus Friday night.

Mrs. Worth Tate of The Dalles visited her son James Tate and family and saw the play at Rufus school Friday night.

The Rufus-Wasco high school students practiced baseball at Rufus Sunday afternoon. Teachers and some of the dads gave the boys a good work out, and made them play hard to beat them.
