Rufus Personals

By Mrs. George Fox

March 23 Mrs. Stenberg from Hood River and Mrs. Meyer from The Dalles presented a movie and lecture on nursing for the high school and grade school girls, during the regular physical education period.

George Fox Jr. left Friday for Corvallis to be a guest, along with 1600 other students, of Oregon State college. The program began Friday evening with registering of students from out of town. A full day of events was scheduled for Saturday which was a beautiful day at Corvallis. The students were released after breakfast Sunday morning. Geo. Fox was accompanied to Corvallis by his mother, Mrs. Fox where she visited her son in law and daughter Dr. and Mrs. Wilson Foote, an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gerding, an uncle Mrs. Minnie Gass and Miss Elizabeth Gerding, a nephew and wife Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Williams and other cousins. After having dinner with Elizabeth Gerding, the Foxes came home late Sunday evening.

One of the most worried moments of the trip was the time when George Jr's car quit dead on the highway while traveling in the dark just east of Portland coming home. Mrs. Fox had visions of a tow rig to get the car to a garage. (And that was fortunate the new car guarantee was still in effect) George Jr. hooked up his trouble shooter light and peered under the hood. In a minute he said, "Mom, see if it starts", and it did! When he was asked what he did, he said, "Oh a wire jumped off the distributor and I put it back in place." The Foxes sailed merrily on home the rest of the way.

The largest crowd that ever attended the Rufus school Letterman's banquet gathered at the Rufus grange hall Thursday evening. One hundred fourteen people were served a good dinner at six individually placed tables. Spring flowers and candles in holders were on the tables which were covered with white cloths. Football flags were flying from gum drop holders and placed along the tables. Place cards in red and white were used at the head table which held the high school faculty, John DeFigh, principal, Larry Cagle coach and teacher, Mrs. Doris Morin, girls coach and teacher, speaker Bob Moyle, Rev. Willis Barney and officers of the PTA who were William O'Brien, Dr. Frank Reid, Fay Brackett and George Fox. White carnations on red holders were at each place of all the students who were in athletics. This also was the first Letterman's banquet given at Rufus where the grade school and volleyball students were invited and honored with the high school.

Rev. Willis Barney asked the blessing before everyone was seated. John DeFigh was master of ceremonies. He thanked all who helped to make the banquet possible. William O'Brien president of PTA spoke a few words of welcome to everyone.

Mr. DeFigh introduced Bob Moyle, sports editor of The Dalles Chronicle. Moyle told of some of his experiences in athletics and how many opportunities students coming from a small school can have. Here everyone gets to turn out for sports while only a chosen few get to play in a large school with the remainder in the cheering section.

Mrs. Doris Morin presented volleyball letters to Phyllis and Dottie Steward, Lola Johnson, Elaine Eaton and Carol Grant. The upper grade girls who helped out the high school in volleyball, couldn't receive letters but were honored were Patricia Blackburn, Valerie Llacus, Eleanor Smith and Clarice Carrol. The yell leaders Lola Johnson and Dottie Steward were honored.

Larry Cagle introduced and told something about each Rufus football player. Wasco and Rufus went together last fall in order that they might have a team to play in the games. Letters were presented to the following Rufus boys Dwayne Carrol, Howard Garland, Russell Blake, George Fox Jr. and Paul Blackburn. Cagle told of the honor it was for Rufus school to have George Fox Jr. one of their students chosen for the All Star Shrine football game to be played at Pendleton, August 28.

John DeFigh presented eight basketball letters to the Rufus high team. Those receiving letters were Joe Brackett, Russell Blake, Dwayne Carrol, Howard Garland, Paul Blackburn, Neal Eaton, George Fox Jr. and Wally Morris.

Mr. DeFigh said George Fox Jr. was the only student at Rufus going out for track.

Larry Cagle spoke of his basketball team with the upper grade boys, and how the team was honored by having Jimmy Fox chosen second place center, and Michael O'Brien chosen sixth place as a forward. Mr. Cagle said Wasco and Rufus are putting their boys together for a baseball team the same as they did for the football team.

Afterwards there was visiting while the women on the serving committee cleaned up. Working on the banquet were Mrs. Joe Morris chairman, Mrs. Don Macnab, Mrs. Curtis Neal, Mrs. Harvey Hansen, Mrs. Ray Brown, Mrs. Bob Byrd, Mrs. William O'Brien, Mrs. Don Macnab Mrs. John DeFigh and Mrs. Larry Cagle.

Mrs. Earl Weatherford and son Grant of Arlington came over to Rufus Thursday evening to attend the banquet. She stayed with her father George Fox until Sunday evening when Mr. Fox took them home.

Some one told us that the reason that Black Angus beef is better than any other is that there's iron in it that makes the eater strong.

Maybe that's the reason our customers are so big and burly and stout since we have that Ken Fridley beef.
