

Grass Valley

By Mrs. A. F. Balzer

The miscellaneous shower given for Mrs. Alta Crowley at the IOOF hall Thursday evening by the mothers of the 3rd and 4th grades and Miss Kathryn Kuhn and Mrs. Bertha Brinkert was well attended. The hall was beautifully decorated with flowers, candles and dolls. Card tables were centered with a lighted candle surrounded by flowers. The gift table was covered with a lace cloth decorated with a wedding scene and candles. The program consisted of a violin solo by Mrs. Vernon Eakin; a reading on "Husbands" by Mrs. Bernard Martin; Miss Kuhn then passed out papers with the name Alta and her name to be, Matye, and each one was to write a telegram beginning each word with the letters in the names, these were read by Mrs. Marcus Eslinger, Mrs. Crowley then opened her many lovely gift-wrapped packages for the pleasure of all. Miss Kuhn took down in short hand every thing Mrs. Crowley said while opening her packages and this was later written in long hand and read by Mrs. Bernard Martin. While Mrs. Crowley was opening her gifts Mrs. Clyde Stradley tied all the string together and later a string game was played which ended with Miss Kuhn holding the broken end.

Refreshments of cake, decorated ice cream slices, tea and coffee were served from a lace cloth covered table centered with the cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Joe Hammond. Mrs. Charles Myers presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Charles Davis at the tea service.

A piano and voice recital was given Saturday evening May 29 at the Baptist church by the pupils of Mrs. Charles Myers and Mrs. Orville Ruggles. The program was as follows: Katherine Reckman, "Becky's Waltz"; Jeanne Duncan, "Barcarolle"; Sharon Cantrall, "Spanish Serenade"; Deanna Martin, "Tango"; Joeelle Blaylock sang, "It is No Secret"; Peggy Reckman, "Clayton's Grand March"; Ramona Davis, "Minuet"; Sandra Sant sang, "The Lost Chord"; Florene Crews, "Dancing Shadows" and the 7th and 8th grade girls sang "I Hear A Forest Praying".

Refreshments of cake, tea and coffee were served by Mrs. Walter Davis and Mrs. Boyce Blaylock. Following the refreshments the pupils performed again for their parents and Mrs. Myers sang.

Mrs. Donald von Borstel was hostess at a party for pre-school children and for her daughter, Cathy, who celebrated her 5th birthday anniversary at the Masonic hall Thursday afternoon. Twenty-seven children and some of the mothers were present. Several games were played under the direction of Mrs. Ivan Blagg. The nursery rhyme theme was carried out in the table decorations and birthday cake, ice cream and punch were served by the hostess. After the refreshments Mrs. von Borstel showed some moving pictures and then Cathy opened her gifts.

Mrs. Grace Zevely of Joseph is here visiting her brother and sister in law, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace May.

Fred Cox left Tuesday for Junction City to attend a cattle sale going on to Corvallis to bring Mrs. Cox home.

Friends and members of the Baptist church gathered at the Elton Eakin home Thursday evening for a surprise pot luck supper honoring Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myers, who are leaving soon for Klamath Falls where he will be pastor of a Baptist church. The group presented the Myers with a money gift towards her new piano. The evening was spent group singing and visiting.
