for public use adequately to provide for the construction of a river improvement for use in connection with the establishment of The Dalles Dam in the Columbia River, Oregon and Washington.

The authority for the taking is The Act of February 26, 1931 (46 Stat. 1421, 40 U.S.C. Sec. 258a) and Acts supplementary thereto and amendatory thereof; The Act of April 24, 1888 (25 Stat. 94, 33 U.S.C. Sec. 591); The Act of March 1, 1917 (39 Stat. 950, 33 U.S.C. 701); Public Law 367-64th Congress; The Act of May 17, 1950 (Public Law 516-81st Congress, Second Session); The Act of July 27, 1953 (Public Law 153-83rd Congress, First Session).

You are further notified that if you have any objection or defense to the taking of your property above described you are required to file herein and to serve upon the plaintiff's attorney at the address herein designated within four weeks after the date of the first publication of this summons, an answer identifying the property in which you claim to have an interest, stating the nature and extent of the interest claimed, and stating all your objections and defenses to the taking of your property. A failure to file and serve an answer shall constitute a consent to the taking and to the authority of the Court to proceed to hear the action and to fix the just compensation and shall constitute a waiver of all defenses and objections not so presented.

You are further notified that if you have no objections nor defense to the taking you may serve upon the plaintiff's attorney a notice of appearance designating the property in which you claim to be interested and thereafter you shall receive notice of all proceedings affecting said property.

You are further notified that on the 5th day of April, 1954 the plaintiff filed herein its Declaration of Taking of said lands and simultaneously therewith deposited in this court and cause the estimated just compensation for such taking.

You are further notified that at the trial of the issue of just compensation, whether or not you have answered or served a notice of appearance, you may present evidence as to the amount of compensation to be paid for the property in which you may have an interest and you may share, on proof of your interest, in the distribution of the award of compensation.

Mrs. Helen Larrimore, the new president, opened the business meeting while the new secretary Mrs. Art Watkins did the recording.

Mrs. Larrimore announced a presidents and secretaries' conference will be held in Portland September 28 and 29. A letter from Mrs. Mae Horn, 5th district president, was read.

Mrs. Horn says each unit should have a membership drive now. The members voted to accept the Sue Marlin plan to try to raise money.

Mrs. Margaret Blau told many interesting things that took place at the convention in Coos Bay.

The Wasco unit will donate their September and October silver dish offering to the Polio fund.

The unit asked all members to send in their dues at this time, as none was collected last June.

Mrs. Ralph DeBoer was a guest of the unit. Members living in Dalles and coming up for the afternoon were Mrs. Margaret Blau, Mrs. Maude Bagenholt and Mrs. Casha Yates. Refreshments of cake and coffee was served buffet style from a lace covered table with a centerpiece of pink roses.

Mrs. Helen Larrimore and Mrs. Robert Bish were hostesses. The Rufus grange received second place award on their "Wheels of Progress" booth at the Sherman County Fair. The booth was made with Mrs. Harold McDonald and Mrs. Grace Medler in charge.

The Rufus grange and its Home Ec. club put on a lunch stand at the fair. Mrs. Roland Johnson, chairman, said she had good cooperation and as soon as the surplus supplies were disposed of the net receipts can be counted.

Mrs. George Drinkard was taken to the hospital Saturday suffering with pneumonia.

Jimmy Medler has been staying with his grandmother Mrs. Grace Medler the last week. His parents Mr. and Mrs. Elton Medler flew back east to take delivery of a new car, and will see some of the country before coming home.
