The American Legion Auxiliary regular meeting, Mrs. C. W. Fields

RE-ELECT

CHARLES A. TOM

STATE REPRESENTATIVE

GILLIAM, MORROW, SHERMAN AND WHEELER COUNTIES

Vernon I. Miller was county commissioner for two full terms and since retirement from that position has been on the county budget board, where he has kept informed about county finance and expenditures.

Charles F. Kuypers is a member of the five-man special road board and has been the full time. He is well acquainted with the county machinery, favored the purchase of the crusher, is a good machinist and has ideas about the construction of county roads.

Both favor building roads with sufficient base to make them stand indefinitely.

Both want the road program to continue.

Both insist that work be done equitably in all parts of the county.

Both favor pay as you go and no county bonds.

Both are young and vigorous.

Both believe that alignment on county roads should be improved before roads are permanently rocked and that better drainage be made where needed.

3. Better control of both annual and noxious weeds on County roads.

A. Spraying program.

B. Request State Highway and railway to do the same.

AL ULLMAN WINNING HIS FIGHT TO SAVE AND DEVELOP YOUR RIVERS, RANCHES AND RESOURCES!

Farm Income Crisis Demands Immediate Action; Ullman Fights Against Return to Hooverism; Ullman Election Last Chance to Save Resources from Give-Away

AL ULLMAN CALLS FOR FARM ACTION

Anti-farmer policies of the administration must be reversed to restore farm and ranch stability. Al Ullman will work to bring creative leadership into farm price support program. He will work for more producers participating in a program geared to family-farm needs. Aggressive surplus disposal is part of his plan to increase farm buying power.

AL ULLMAN VETERAN RIVER DEVELOPMENT FIGHTER

A vote for Al Ullman is a vote for full river development NOW. Al Ullman will fight for you at Hells Canyon and John Day; for low-cost power to open the gates to new industry, more jobs and payrolls, more business on every Main Street. Al Ullman has waged a courageous 5-year battle to save your rivers. He will carry the fight to Congress.

AL ULLMAN KNOWS RESOURCES

Present policies are concentrating Eastern Oregon resources in hands of a few special interests. Two years more will be too late to stop this give-away and exploitation. Al Ullman will fight to protect your forests, lands and resources from monopoly control, and put them to use for all the people.

AL ULLMAN LEADS FIGHT FOR MORE FREE ENTERPRISE

Al Ullman's fight is for the working man, farmers and small businessmen, for more free competitive enterprise, more capital investment attracted by low-cost power, more jobs, more payrolls, more farm markets, more opportunities for young people.

Al Ullman has two college degrees in government, is an overseas veteran of World War II, has a wife and three children, is a successful businessman. EASTERN OREGON NEEDS HIS EXPERIENCE, VISION AND LEADERSHIP IN CONGRESS.

WIN WITH AL ULLMAN for CONGRESS DEMOCRAT
