Wasco News

Mrs. George Fox The Rufus high school basketball team scored a win over Wasco when they met at the Rufus gym Friday night.

The Wolves gained a six point lead over the Warriors in the first quarter and held that margin until the half when the score read 25 for Rufus and 20 points for Wasco.

At the end of the third quarter, the Wolves had a thirteen point lead, but Wasco got their second wind and really played some fine ball. At one time the score was within two points, but Rufus spurred ahead and when the whistle blew Rufus rounded out a 57 to 47 win, Harry Decker was high man for Wasco with 22 points to his credit, Jimmy Fox, a freshman at Rufus, won top honors with 24 points while Wally Morris next high had 16 points. C. P. Bayer and Bosson were referees for the game.

The Wasco high school girls slaughtered the Rufus girls at a preliminary volleyball game before the boys game Friday night. Two grade school Rufus girls Shirleen Craig and Patricia O'Brien were needed to fill in on the high school team on account of illness of the other high school players.

The Home Economics club had an afternoon meeting Thursday

Sixteen members attended the regular bi-monthly meeting of the Rebekah lodge. After the secretary had read the minutes and the treasurer's report was given, Miss Trounce is still unable to attend since a fall down her back steps before Christmas.

A love offering is to be taken for the polio fund and also for the Linda Coats fund during the January meetings.

The three new members Mrs. C. L. Gray, Mrs. Ruth Fields and Mrs. Grover Long were greeted and each said a few words.

Past noble grands were honored and each told an incident outstanding or amusing which they recalled happening during their term in that office. A gift was presented to each by Mrs. Floyd Haines.
