

Moro Personals

Earle Shipley, former Sherman countian, has been appointed public relations director for Linfield college at McMinnville.

Howard Cushman, field man for soil conservation, will be here next week from Wednesday on, to look over fertilizer trials and conservation plots.

Mrs. Maggie Barnum returned Monday evening from stage from Stevenson, Washington where she visited several days with her grand daughter, Mrs. Bob Carpenter and family.

Stan Drew, who managed the erection of the first McNary-Maupin electric line through the county, is here again to manage the building of the second.

Parker Schram has the contract and has begun work which is estimated to require 250 days whereas the other contract had a time limit of 310 days. Material has been stored at the lot in Kent. Mr. Drew will move his family to Moro as soon as he finds a house for them.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell were here Friday for a few hours while on their way home to Helix. They announced that their son, Tommy, will be married next Sunday to a girl from Umatilla county.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of Tom Coyle wishes to express our sincere appreciation for the thoughtfulness, messages, and services extended during our recent bereavement.
