

Moro Personals

Yvonne Kirkelle and Willy Knighten Jr. came down from Seattle with Mrs. Frances Matthews and son Ted, who went on to Grass Valley, for a visit with their respective parents over Mother's day.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Roberson of Condon spent the Mother's day weekend visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Willy Knighten and son went to Ione Sunday to visit their daughter Mrs. Jack Miller and husband in observance of Mother's day.

E. E. Barnum left Tuesday for Bend to spend a few days on the farm with his son, Cleo and family.

Mrs. Verne Arstall of Athena came Sunday to operate the Moro Beauty shop for a week while Mrs. Marion Powell, owner, spends the week at their Hardman ranch in Morrow county.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Belshee left Wednesday morning for Eugene to see her brother, Charles Harlow who is ill at that city.

J. Shelt Bures is home from the hospital in Portland where he has been lately and while thin and on crutches, says he is getting better and may be able to ride a gentle horse again. Shelt is almost 81.

The Moro Missionary society will meet Wednesday, May 18, at the home of Mrs. Daisy Byers. Bible study and devotions will begin promptly at 11:00 a. m. Buffet luncheon will be at 12:15 p. m. Program will begin at 1:30 with Mrs. Eugene Amidon in charge. Interested ladies are cordially invited.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to express my sincere thanks to the kind friends who sent me flowers and expressions of sympathy during my stay in the hospital.

Mrs. Clyde Gillmor.

RUFUS ITEMS

Mrs. George Fox

The Rufus church of the Nazarenes had 73 present for its Mothers Day program. Fay Brackett, Sunday school superintendent, presented cakes to Mrs. Glen Thompson for the oldest mother present, Mrs. Paul Blackbrune for the youngest mother, Mrs. O. Peterson the mother with the most children and Mrs. Fay Brackett, the mother with the most guests. Mrs. Fay Brackett pinned a ribbon corsage on every mother as they came in the door. The cakes were made by Mrs. Herman Brackett and Mrs. John Mathieson and decorated by Mrs. Willis Barney.

The Bible class and young peoples class had a weiner roast Thursday night at Rufus. Leaders are Rev. Willis Barney and Mrs. Fay Brackett.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jordan have remodeled the postoffice part of their home. They have enclosed part of their old front porch to make more office room and made a new opening for the postoffice door and porch. Also they have a new mail sorting bench. They are not adding more boxes but can if the business warrants it.

Wayne Eaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Eaton, came home April 27 to visit his folks. He is at the Fairchild airforce base at Spokane, Wn., and reports back May 24 for nine more months of duty. This will make four years for Wayne. He will be a radar technician.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Buce and children who operated the Rufus Motel the last year left Wednesday to make their home in Arlington where they recently bought a home. The owners of the motel, the George Foxes will operate it. Mrs. Sam Brock arrived home last Friday from a weeks trip to Reno, Nevada, where she was a guest of her sister Mrs. Cora Conley. Mrs. Brock drove her car to Salmie where she was joined by her brother in law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hunt, then they all took the bus to Reno. There are just three women left from an original family of ten children. This was their first visit all together for many year.
