

Moro Personals

Ken Waldroff, son in law of Mrs. Gladys Morrison, will be on television over Channel 19 Friday night at 8:30 when he presents his 85 member choir from Yakima.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Woods were here from Centerville, Wn., to witness the high school graduation exercises Tuesday night at the Moro high school. Their niece, Carol Burnet, being one of the graduates.

Mrs. Julia Hansen is here from Portland to visit with her sister, Mrs. Etta Moore for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Collis Moore were in Portland Saturday where they attended the meeting of the Republican central committee of which she is a member.

Penny Higley drew the cover design for the juvenile grange magazine this month, a free hand drawing of roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Bucholtz will be among the graduates of Washington State college next Sunday. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Art Bucholtz.

An oiling crew has been here a week with the job of oiling the Sherman highway from the south Sherman county line to the junction with the Criterion road southwest of Shaniko. Cold weather and a threat of rain has prevented much progress.

Mrs. Ora Peetz left Thursday for Portland to attend the wedding of her grandson, Lopis, (son of the late Forrest Peetz) which will be an event of Saturday in that city. She made the trip down with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Martin who were going for the day on business.

Invitations have been received for the wedding reception for Miss Joan Oveson which will be held at the Oveson home at Pendleton Saturday, June 11, following her marriage to Lawrence Heath in

The fire siren Thursday morning summoned Moro citizens to watch the barn on the Phillips place burn to the ground. It was dry and the fire department had no chance to extinguish the fire by the time it was discovered. The barn was not being used at the time.

Aiden Dyer is here for a visit with his mother, Mrs. J. W. Dyer and sister, Mrs. W. J. Coons, coming from Salem.

RUFUS ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Johnson of Aloha and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Michaels of Portland were over night guests of the R. M. Johnsons on their way home from a two weeks trip thru Nevada, Arizona and other places. They saw the Grand Canyon, Bryce Canyon, Grand Coulee and the Yellowstone park. They drove thru a sand storm, a blizzard and a snow storm.

The Rufus Tavern, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Johnson, was sold to a party reportedly from near The Dalles. No details were learned. Mr. Johnson has been in ill health for the past few months after suffering a heart attack, and has spent most of the time with a daughter living near Portland.

Glen Thompson was taken to a hospital in Portland Monday morning after he suffered what they thought was a stroke Saturday night. Glen was in fair health until a couple weeks ago, when he began not feeling so well. The Thompsons were married here at Wasco over 50 years ago and have lived in the county most of the time.

The Rufus people all had to see how a small truck with a horse in the back pulling a house trailer could go off the highway just a few hundred feet west of the Rufus Tavern and not hurt the horse. The accident happened Sunday afternoon, and it was evening before everything was pulled back onto the highway, and the unidentified man reportedly on his way to Tygh Valley.

The Cherry Park grange degree team in their long white formal together with their captain, Truman Brooks, put on the first and second degrees at the Rufus grange May 19. The master of Cherry Park, Arthur Means, and his wife were also present. Also Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Daley of Fishers grange Clark county Washington.

Harland McDonald, master, opened the Rufus grange with all officers present. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Haines were given the degree work. Representative Allen Tom gave a talk on taxes.

Mrs. Bill O'Brien, H. E. C. chairman, announced Celia Lee of the Crown Mills will not give the roll demonstration as planned at Rufus. The service has been discontinued.

This last week with the exception of two day during the middle of the week, when the mercury jumped to the mid eighties was cool. With a breeze blowing most of the time it was ideal growing weather for wheat which looks very promising at this time.

FEATHERED FRIENDS MEET

Vice president, Gary Thompson called the meeting to order. The minutes were read and approved. There was no old business. Under new business, our leader, Bertha Belshe, asked us all to get our club enrollment cards in to Tommy Thompson, county agent. She also ask about our eggs and how they were coming along. Most of them are ready to hatch within the next week or two.

The club wishes to thank the First National Bank for the use of its conference room. The meeting was adjourned.
