Rev. and Mrs. Alfred Solomon and son are in the San Francisco area of California beginning this week. Mr. Solomon will be attending summer school at San Francisco Theological Seminary at San Anselmo for three weeks, and Mrs. Solomon is attending the two week summer choir school at the Seminary. They will also be visiting his mother at Berkeley, and sister and family at Santa Rosa.

NOTICE: and you will see of our lunch and food sale for the Auxiliary. We are not robbers or hold-ups you will find. Just a few hard working women trying to make a dime. At Legion hall, June 25 Chris Schultz post No. 71.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles French returned Monday from Roseburg where they attended the annual newspaper convention. They returned by way of the coast.

Mrs. Frances Mathews is helping in the Journal office for a time this summer to supplement her study of journalism at the University of Washington with some practical knowledge.

David Hazen, missionary from French Morocco, will be guest speaker at the Moro Presbyterian church Sunday morning, June 26, at 11:00 a. m. Mr. Hazen is the son of Everett Hazen of The Dalles, who has been guest speaker here several times during the past summers.

Edwin Balsiger left last week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Powell for Lansing, Michigan to get a new car. From there they drove to New York and after seeing some of the east coast will return by way of Canada.

Bible School Finished In Wasco

A very successful Vacation Bible school was concluded Wednesday by the Church of Christ in Wasco. A demonstration program was held Tuesday night. Diplomas were awarded for those with perfect attendance and those who had completed the work. Diplomas of recognition were also given to the teachers. The theme of the Bible school was "Heroes of the Cross" and the boys and girls showed by story and song what they had learned. The nursery group gave a demonstration of one of their stories acted out and some songs. They also played a number with their rhythm band. The primary class had a demonstration of their handiwork, songs and told some of their stories by the use of some flannelgraphs which were made in class. Highlight of the evening was the puppet show put on by the juniors and intermediates acting out two of their stories. The puppets were made by the boys and girls in class handiwork. Several songs were sung by the whole Bible school and the juniors formed a march demonstrating what was used in our country's army and in Christ's army. The evening was closed by a worship service led by the intermediate class. The rooms were open for inspection. Several pictures were taken during the evening. Teachers for the two weeks were nursery: Mrs. M. L. Shields and Mrs. Lee Pearson; primary: Mrs. Arthur VanGilder and Mrs. Leo Watkins; junior: Mrs. Sadie Rich and Mrs. Alex Schied; intermediate: Merlin Shields; teacher's assistant, Judith Watkins.

Rufus Personals

Mrs. George Fox

Another grass fire at Rufus got out of hand Tuesday of last week burning up to the houses east on the road going down to the elevators. The trailer house of Eugene Back was in the path of fire, also an empty house of theirs, but a group of men with shovels and hoses kept things under control. A pile of lumber to be used on a home for the Backs did burn. The next day, the quick work of Russell Blake and John Mathieson saved Trace Field's old barn when another fire started.

Several people have burned grass from hazardous areas. The grange members cleaned the grass from the hall Saturday, then burned around it.

Fire in the homes in the evenings and mornings was needed to keep warm last week, so it was no wonder everyone about melted with the quick heat that arrived Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William O'Brien took a truck load of furniture to Echo Sunday, and will take the rest of their things this week from the house on the old Garlington place where they have lived this past year. The O'Briens will make their home in Echo where Mrs. O'Brien will teach in the high school.

Cyril Schooling, deputy of the Oregon State Grange was in Rufus Thursday night for the grange meeting. He talked on Oregon grange wholesale and supply. Only two grange officers were absent. One was Harland McDonald who is ill again. Rolland Johnson acted as master. The farmers were reminded to get out and vote June 25 when the election on a support price is held. Bill O'Brien resigned from the assistant stewards office, and Mrs. O'Brien as musician as they are moving away. However, they intend keeping their membership in the Rufus grange.

For the lecturer's program Mrs. Sadie Rich showed some pictures, Monya Neal played a piano solo and Mrs. Harland McDonald read "A Tribute To Father." Mrs. Rolland Johnson says both granges in Sherman county earned a pennant for all dues in the first quarter of the year.

After the grange meeting a farewell party was held for the William O'Brien family. The women brought cake and had ice cream to go with the pot luck supper.

Women of the Rufus grange home economics club met Tuesday at the grange hall to sort rummage for the sale they will have June 23, 24, and 25 at Mauser's lumber warehouse across from the Safeway Store in The Dalles.

The Sherman County Pomona grange picnic was held at DeMoss Springs Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ardie Jordan who have been on vacation from their duties at the Rufus post office stopped in Rufus Monday to see about their house and also vote in the school election. They reported good fishing at the lakes so again headed back that way in the afternoon. They said they enjoyed seeing Bryce canyon in Utah on their travels.

Summer school at Wasco for St. Mary's Catholic church ended last week. Eleven children were in the first Communion class. The families going from this area were the John Belloni sons, Bill Macnab's daughters, Don Macnab family, Morris Burnet's daughter and the Leland Medler children.

Martin-Martin Wedding Unites Two Well Known Sherman County Families

In a pink and white setting, Miss Sharon Ardeane Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Martin of Kent, became the bride of Robert Leroy Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orlow L. Martin of Moro, at a 2:30 p. m. ceremony at the Zion Lutheran church, The Dalles, June 19. Rev. J. L. Sawyer, pastor, read the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. D. R. Thorsness of The Dalles sang, "Oh Promise Me", and "The Wedding Benediction". Mrs. W. H. Wilhelm of The Dalles was the accompanist and played the wedding marches.

Miss Desanna Martin of Grass Valley, cousin of the bride, and Miss Janice Martin of Heppner, cousin of the groom, were the candlelighters. Marcia Martin of Moro, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Gary Carlson, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a William Cahill original princess gown of white imported chintilly lace. The bodice was made with a wide portrait neckline and long sleeves. The bouffant skirt of triple tiers in front and edged in pleated net extended into a chapel train. Her fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a cap of matching lace and seed pearls. She wore a necklace of seed pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet centered with a white orchid and showered with pale pink frill roses and stephanotis. For something old, she carried in her lace handkerchief two pearl buttons from her grandmother's wedding dress.

Mrs. Ted Carlson of Kent, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor, and Mrs. Richard Skiles of Sacramento and Miss Irene Steagall of Eugene were bridesmaids. They all wore pale pink waltz length gowns.

Mrs. Kenneth Martin, mother of the bride, wore a grey lace over pink taffeta, with pink and grey accessories, and Mrs. Orlow Martin, mother of the groom, wore a blue lace with blue and white accessories.

Dean Martin was best man for his brother, and ushers were Lee Martin of Kent, brother of the bride; Norval Lane of The Dalles;
