

George vonBorstel and Patricia Johnson Married In Dufur Catholic Church

Miss Patricia Ann Johnson of Dufur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson of Portage, Pa., became the bride of George vonBorstel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. vonBorstel of Grass Valley, at a nuptial mass read at 10:30 a. m. June 11 at St. Alphonsus Catholic church, Dufur. The Rev. A. R. Dominick read the service.

Baskets of white gladioli were used in the church while the altar vases held white gladioli and yellow carnations.

Nila Pope, Kathy Wright and Linda Collingsworth, all of John Day, sang trio numbers which included "Lord, Who at Cana's Wedding Feast" and "Our Father". Mrs. Leo Hammel Sr. was organist.

Miss Margaret Ann Johnson of Dufur, niece of the bride, was flower girl and Michael DeCoursey of Prineville, nephew of the groom was ring bearer.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father from Portage, Pa., wore a gown of white satin and nylon tulle. The skirt was made with a chapel train. A redingote of white embroidered tulle covered the gown. Her fingertip veil fell from a double crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink and blue daisies centered with a dark throated white orchid and strewn with stephanotis.

Louise Johnson, sister in law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore an ankle length dress of shrimp colored nylon over taffeta. With this she wore a picture hat of matching nylon net and white daisies with yellow centers. Mrs. Cassie DeCoursey of Prineville and Mrs. Marie Hattrop of Seattle were the other attendants. They wore dresses of yellow nylon net, over light moss green taffeta, complemented with yellow net picture hats. They carried cascades of yellow centered white daisies.

William E. Johnson of Dufur, brother of the bride, was best man and Donald vonBorstel and Carl vonBorstel, brothers of the groom were ushers.

A wedding breakfast for members of the bridal party, immediate families and clergymen was held at 12:30 p. m. in the Blue room of Hotel Dalles. A reception for around 100 followed in the Blue room from 3 to 5 p. m.

The rooms were decorated with baskets of gladioli and daisies. A wedding cake in the shape of a cross centered the bride's table.

Mrs. William Holmes of Grass Valley and Mrs. C. J. Kulick of Crown Point, Ind., poured. Miss Cassie Holmes of The Dalles, Mrs. Marcus Dale and Mrs. Olive Erickson of John Day cut the cake. Miss Dorothy Govig of Portland passed the guest book.

For a trip to Pennsylvania, for a visit with friends and relatives of the bride. Mrs. vonBorstel wore a blue suit dress with white accessories and the white orchid from her wedding bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Indiana State Teachers college at Indiana, Pa. She taught home economics in Pennsylvania and this past year in John Day.

The groom was graduated from the West Coast Trade Institute in Portland and served two years in the U. S. Army. The couple will be home after July 1 in Grass Valley.
