

Moro Personals

Mrs. Etta Moore spent a nice weekend in The Dalles with Dr. and Cecil Morse and seeing her new great grand daughter while May Ann Brown went down to her old home in Lebanon. Sunday they went to their old home in Alesia for the old-timers picnic and report a grand time with school mates and old time friends.

Rev. Alfred W. Solomon is spending the week of August 15-22, as a counselor at the Presbyterian Junior High camp at Menucha, near Corbett. John Matteson and Bobby Cyphers are attending the camp.

Charles Beishee came up Sunday to be around home for a time and maybe buy a few head of stock.

Lt. Walter Eslinger and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Eslinger went to Springston, Idaho over the weekend to visit Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Eslinger. The Walter Eslinger family left from there for their home in California. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Eslinger stopped in for a brief visit with Mrs. Grace Wallan and her brother.

A marriage license was issued at Stevenson, Washington, August 16 to Reed Peck and Mrs. Mildred McLachlan and report has it that they were married later that day in a nearby Washington town.

The employees of the first National bank in Moro and other friends gave a surprise birthday party for Dean Shaver last Friday evening at the Legion hall. Dean was really surprised as he came into the darkened room and found his friends as the lights went up.

Mrs. Verne Arstill and daughters, Diann and Janet, of Athena are here this week. Elsie is taking care of the Beauty Shop while Mrs. Powell is at Hardman helping with the harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kruger are now living in Athena and working for Verne Arstill in the machinery business.

Ivan (Chunky) Kirkelle and Earl Griggs, who are respectively fielder and pitcher for The Dalles Legion baseball team, played a part in winning the district championships at Billings for Oregon. Griggs pitched against Spokane and won handily and Kirkelle has been getting timely hits in every game. The team now goes to Hastings, Nebraska, for the national semi-finals.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Jones are home from a vacation taken by driving along the Oregon coast.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Waldroff of Sunnyside, Washington, Friday, August 12, at the Mid-Columbia hospital in The Dalles a daughter, Teresa Lee. Mrs. Waldroff is the former Helen Morrison.

precipitation of the work done to save my wheat which burned last Thursday. To those who drove to the fire and helped control it I give my sincere thanks.
