Miss Shirley McIntyre Honored By Shower

Miss Shirley McIntyre was guest of honor at a bridal shower Thursday afternoon September 15 at the little Legion hall. Hostesses were Mrs. Walt Bruckert, Mrs. Earl Richelderfer, Mrs. Robert Bish, Mrs. Clarence Spencer, Mrs. Leonard Fields and Mrs. L. E. Kaseberg.

Dainty pink carnation corsages were presented the guest of honor, her mother, Mrs. Afton McIntyre and mother in law to be, Mrs. Grace Miller of The Dalles.

The tea table was lace covered centered by silver candelabra, pink and white sweet peas filled the bouquet holders on the candelabra. Mrs. Kaseberg's silver service was used. The punch bowl held pink punch topped by a ring of white ice with floating pink and white sweet peas. The grandmothers, Mrs. W. A. Wallace and Mrs. L. L. Taylor, both of The Dalles, presided over the tea, coffee and punch service.

Mrs. Afton McIntyre and Mrs. Grace Miller cut and served the lovely three tiered cakes, made and decorated by Mrs. Bruckert and Mrs. Spencer, from a lace covered table, using pink and white gladioli. The cake made by Mrs. Bruckert was iced in white and topped with a white crystal sugar shower umbrella on which were green leaves and pink flowers and with surrounding tiny sugar cube packages tied with pastel colored icing ribbons. The other cake made by Mrs. Spencer was trimmed in pink icing, centered with a cluster of white crystal sugar wedding bells and edged with white sugar rosebuds.

The gift table was also lace covered with a doll clothes rack wrapped in white and with small packages hung on with pink clothespins. In front of the rack was a bridal party of dolls predominantly dressed in pink and white.

After several games, the bride was assisted by Mrs. Chas. Decker and Mrs. Don Thompson in opening the lovely gifts, recorded and passed and then placed on the table for display.

PUTMAN-NORTON

The marriage of Miss Carole Ann Norton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Norton of Kent to Ronald J. Putman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Putman of Coos Bay was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Grass Valley Baptist church. Rev. Donald Leach read the service.

Large baskets of white gladioli were placed on either side of the chancel. Mrs. Orville Ruggles played the wedding marches. Don Earl sang "Because" accompanied by Mrs. Ruggles preceding the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her ballerina length white nylon gown had a white lace bodice, long fitted lace sleeves and a small high lace collar. A fingertip lace veil fell from a cap of seed pearls. She carried a purple orchid on a white prayer book.

Mrs. Clair Balzer of Moro was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length coral satin dress and carried an old fashioned nosegay of white daisies.

Mrs. Charles Gengler of Milwaukie, and Miss Anne Livie of Juneau, Alaska were the bridesmaids. They were both attired in peacock blue satin ballerina length dresses and carried nosegays of white daisies. Miss Janis Thompson of Albany, cousin of the bride was flower girl. She wore an off the shoulder white tulle dress and carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds.

Robert Putman of Coos Bay was best man for his brother. The ushers were Rosa Norton, brother of the bride and Bill Webb.

Mrs. Norton, mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding an aqua silk tweed dress, a small aqua velvet hat and black accessories. Mrs. Putman wore a navy suit, a navy velvet hat and black accessories. Both mothers wore pink carnation corsages.

A reception was held in the community room of the church immediately following the ceremony. A three-tiered cake decorated with pink roses and silver leaves, topped with the traditional bride and groom, centered a table covered with white linen, hand-embroidered heirloom cloth. A bowl of sweet peas and baby breath were placed at one end of the table and the silver and mints at the other. Coffee and punch were served from an adjacent table covered with white linen and centered with a bouquet of pink and white sweet peas and snapdragons. The gift table was decorated with an arrangement of pansies and a large blue candle with silver wedding bells topped the piano.

The bride and groom cut the first piece of cake. Mrs. Frank von Borstel cut the remainder of the cake assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Dunlap. Mrs. Robert Tatum, sister of the bride served the punch. Mrs. Claire Thompson of Albany, aunt of the bride poured the coffee. Assisting about the room were Miss Bonnie Tatum, niece of the bride, Mrs. J. W. Blagg, Mrs. Robert Hejler and Mrs. George Wilson. The guest book was passed by Mrs. Helen Banry. Miss Carol Kopp was in charge of the gift table.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Putman Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Putman Jr., Mrs. Harold Velure, Mrs. Martha Fogde, George Hildston, all of Coos Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Lew Putman; Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Putman of Walla Walla, Wash.; Mrs. Claire Thompson and daughter, Janis, of Albany; John Ross, grandfather of the bride, of Tangent; Mrs. Al Kluppenger and daughters Cecilia and Nancy Norton, Mrs. Ruth Harrison of Portland; Mrs. Eva Whitling of Fresno, Calif.; Miss Marilyn Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sather and Mr. and Mrs. Clair Balzer of Moro; Mr. and Mrs. R. IS YOUR WHEAT GETTING NITROGEN IN THE ROOT ZONE?

SHELL'S way is the Sure way to fertilize with nitrogen

FIRST—AND BEST—IN AMMONIA FERTILIZATION!

When you buy a nitrogen fertilizer, be sure you get one that gives you full strength nitrogen, in a form that can go to work right away, and one that stays with your wheat crop throughout the growing season.

Shell NH₃ answers all these important requirements for nitrogen fertilizer. It is guaranteed a full 82% nitrogen. And because Shell NH₃ is scientifically placed in the root zone, it starts feeding wheat immediately, resists leaching, maintains a supply of plant nourishment.

Shell NH₃ Service—scientific nitrogen application by Shell-trained experts—assures you full value for your fertilizer dollar. Shell NH₃ dealers know local crop and soil conditions. They use application equipment perfected in over 20 years of fertilizing experience.

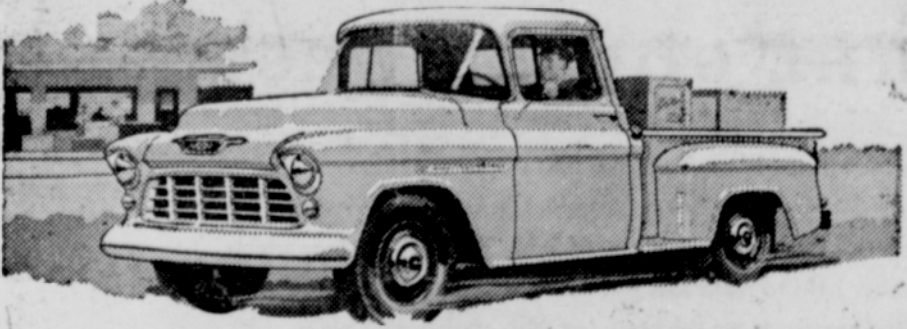

Get healthier stands, yield increases up to 50% or more, and a return of as much as $4 for every $1 invested. Fertilize with NH₃ the SURE Shell way!

Ask us for a copy of the Shell NH₃ bulletin on the SURE way to fertilize wheat.
