After a moderate week, a rainstorm resembling a cloudburst fell in this area Friday night. At one farm an inch of rain was recorded on their home rain gauge. There was a heavy fog the first of the week on the higher land in the north end of the county which left telephone and electric wires like huge ropes of ice. The ice broke the telephone wires in several places.

The REA electricity has been very low, accounting for a lot of people unplugging their appliances. At certain times even the refrigerator motors refuses to kick on.
