

Moro Personals

A drivers license examiner will be on duty in Moro Tuesday, February 23 at the courthouse between the hours of 10 a. m and 3 p. m.

Oswald Quaalie Gateway was down to Moro Wednesday on one of his periodic business trips.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles French were in Eugene last week attending the annual conference of the newspaper fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Collis Moore went to Eugene Thursday so that Mrs. Moore could pursue her candidacy for the nomination as Republican national committeewoman. They had been in Heppner the day before.

Many Sherman countians interested in music or in family peace went to The Dalles Tuesday evening to hear a group of Irish men and women sing.

Mrs. Gus Thoele took her son to Portland for further medical treatment at Doernbecher hospital for his ear ailment. She is home again now.

Edward Baisiger, a junior from Moro, was elected vice president of Beta Theta Pi. Baisiger is majoring in pre-dentistry.

H. Halley has rented the old brick house recently bought and refinished by Bill Roos.

Mrs. Bill Coons suffered some temporary injury last Saturday night when she was accidentally tripped while dancing with her son at the dance in Grass Valley.

Rufus Personals

Mrs. George Fox

The Rufus boys went to Arlington Friday night for games. At the preliminary game the Arlington grade school were winners by a score of 24 to 15. The high school game got off to a good start and Rufus did well in the first quarter as they boasted a four point lead at the end of the first quarter 11 to 7. The Arlington team forged ahead in the second quarter and gained to make a lead of 28 to 42 at the whistle. Russell Blake high point man for Rufus had 16 points while Wally Morris was a close second with 13 points. The referees were Bobsons are operating the service station at Dintys.

The Dinty's Cafe was opened late Friday night for business after being closed for repairs since the first of the month. Mr. and Mrs. Reeves are the new operators. This cafe is located at Biggs Junction.

Another week has past that held nothing but freezing temperatures for this area. The freeze came before the inch of snow that fell Thursday. The farmers hope the wheat isn't hurt. The stiff wind which blew Wednesday tried to blow the wheat from the fields, so it is having a difficult time trying to get a start. The rising temperatures Saturday made everyone hopeful the cold weather is on the way out.

Mrs. Rolland Johnson, state grange lecturer, left Saturday morning for Crvallis where she is holding a lecturer's school Monday and Tuesday. Then Mrs. Johnson goes to Ashland to hold another school Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Johnson was accompanied on her trip by her mother, Mrs. George Drinkard. Other grange lecturers going to Corvallis for the school from Sherman county were Mrs. Will Huck and Mrs. George Fox.

Mrs. Milton Tumilson's mother Mrs. McInnes of Canada is visiting her for awhile. The Tumil-

Luther Davis and daughter, Jerri Lee, were honored with a Valentine birthday dinner Tuesday evening. Guests besides the immediate family were Mrs. J. M. Wilson of Kent and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilson of Portland. The J. C. Wilsons were overnight guests at the Davis home.

Mr. and Mrs. Merl Mobley and family of Idana, Oregon were visitors last week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Mobley.

Luther Davis and Lester Wilson were business visitors in The Dalles Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bucholtz of Ellensburg, Wn., and Mr. and Mrs. William Bucholtz Jr. and child of Seattle, Wn., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harley McKay Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. B. O. Stark and daughter, Kathy and Mrs. Anna Barnett of Grass Valley were visitors in The Dalles Tuesday.
