Rufus Personals

Mrs. George Fox
Of interest to Wasco and Rufus friends is word of the engagement of Miss Lois Coats, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Coats of Hood River to Floyd Wesley Haskell of Portland. Miss Coats, has taught several years at the Whitaker school in Portland, is a sister of Chester Coats and Mrs. Harold Melzer of Wasco. A June wedding is planned. Miss Coats is well known here getting all her grade and high school at the RUTHERFORD MEAL TIME FUN CLUB.

By Carolyn Pearson
The meeting was called to order by our president, Patsy Wilkinson. Pat Raye led us in the American flag salute and Karen Brock led our motto and pledge. The minutes of the last meeting were read by our secretary, Beverly Lutje. Our committee, Vivian Buckley, Karen Brock and Pat Raye gave a report on table manners. The meeting was adjourned. Apple crisp was served by Karen Brock and Mary Spencer.

and Wasco schools. The elder Coats resided here until the last few years when they moved to Hood River.

The Rufus school Cubs went to Maupin Friday and Saturday to take part in the grade school basketball tournament held there. Rufus drew St. Mary's for their first game which ended 34-38 in favor of St. Mary's. Saturday Rufus was pitted against Petersburg which was a walk away for Rufus. At half the score was 4-22. Coach Vrana gave all subs a chance to play, final score being 16-32 in favor of Rufus. Then Rufus played Dufur, putting up a good show in the first half and held a lead of 20-15. But the last three minutes of play decided the score when Rufus boys were fouling and Dufur making their foul shots with score ending 34-40, 18-10. Bobby Byrd made 14 points to be high point man. Bobby also was the only Rufus boy chosen on the All Star team. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Byrd, Rufus. The Kent boys won the sportsmanship trophy, a new basketball. Rufus boys playing were Bob and Loren Byrd, Dick Stueve, Robert Godier, Joel Neal, Chas. Griggs, David Tom, Doug Reid, Doug Medier and Doug Tumilson. The yell leaders going were Joan Brackett, Patsy Roberts and Anne Peterson with chaperone, Mrs. Myrri Perry. Rufus placed 4th in the tournament.

The Missionary society of Rufus church of Nazarene met last week. Study topic was "The Church, the Missionary Backbone". Election of officers took place with Mrs. John Mathieson, president, Mrs. Fay Brackett, superintendent of study and delegate to district convention in May at Walla Walla. A 7-ay production workshop is being held in The Dalles presided over by Miss Jessalene Mallalieu, recreation specialist of OSC. Miss Mallalieu tells about selecting a play, casting and makeup. The first part devoted to directing. Workshop dates are: March 26, 27, 28, April 2, 16, 23, 30 and May 7. First meeting was at 8 p. m. March 26, at The Dalles Cherry Park grange. Hood River, Wasco and Sherman counties are participating in this play production.

George Fox Jr. left Sunday with Miss Marlene Wenzel to spend the night at her folks home in Portland. They went on to Corvallis Monday where both are beginning another term at OSC. Miss Wenzel came Thursday to spend the rest of the week visiting at the George Fox home.

Rufus church plans an Easter program, theme "Then and Now" with teenagers taking the part of "Then" and the small children "Now". Members also plan a cleanup day Saturday for the church grounds with members to bring sack lunches. At 2 p. m. a practice will be held on the Easter program. This will be followed by an Easter egg hunt. Each child to bring several colored eggs. Dolph Baker and Wayne Eaton

WHAT'S DOING

Cal Horn, your Telephone Manager

There's no extra charge for repairs

Stop and think about it for a moment. There is a guarantee on one of the conveniences in your home that isn't just for 90 days, or only one year, or 10 or 20 years. It's the guarantee that your telephone will be repaired or replaced whenever necessary and with no extra charge to you. It's a guarantee that never runs out. It's good for as long as you have a telephone. And it means service that's always dependable. The men and women of Pacific Telephone work to make your telephone more useful every day.

Something to remember when you're planning to build or remodel

One feature every modern, well planned home should have is up-to-date telephone facilities. Concealed wiring and conveniently located telephone outlets make your home more livable, add to its beauty and value. Your architect or builder can easily put these features in your plans. The cost is small. We'll be glad to help you with our free planning service. Call and ask for "Architects and Builders Service".

MEET NEIL ROTH

Many of our customers know Neil Roth who was born and raised in The Dalles and graduated from The Dalles High school. He is an accomplished musician, playing the cello and trombone. He was recently employed as a Business Office representative for this area. Last December he completed his tour of duty with the U. S. Army. Under the jurisdiction of the State Department he toured Europe with a seventy-five piece symphony orchestra and their performances were beamed to the Countries behind the Iron Curtain. His wife, Joanne is also a musician and plays the piano and flute. He says, "I like people and I want to be of service to our many customers".
