Lloyd Johnson came home from Portland and St. Vincent's hospital last week end but is still unable to put out the mail.

Don von Boskirk of Portland, where he is with Atkinson & Co., was here Tuesday and Wednesday seeing his investment customers.

Wren Hogue stopped here while on his way to Springfield, Idaho, to visit his daughter, rs. Marcus Eslinger. He says the snow is still deep at Crater Lake, where he lives.

Dean Shaver, operations officer at the Sherman county branch of the National Bank, and Miss First National Bank, and Miss Waunda Louise Lawson were married at the Methodist church in Tigard, Oregon, last Sunday and are on a two weeks vacation and honeymoon.

Attending from here were Mrs. Leta Eslinger, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Balzer, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Olson.

Eugene Amidon has been spending some time at The Dalles hospital under care for an infection.

There haven't been many farmers around the streets this week. Most of them are through seeding and are doing the spring plowing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Coons went to Mitchell Saturday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Kelly Wilson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Balsiger were in Spokane last Thursday and Friday to attend a meeting of co-operative elevator managers.

Mrs. William Baker has gone to Eugene to be with her daughter. They stopped here briefly after the funeral of Mr. Baker in Redmond Saturday.

I wish to thank my kind friends for visits, cards and flowers during my stay in the hospital.
