Why not go down to the stock show next week and see the kind of fat beef we get our steaks from. We'll feed you when you get back.

BE SURE to attend the 4-H Livestock Show in The Dalles and watch the Sherman county lads and lassies show off their fat steers, sheep and hogs.
They'll be among the winners and we'll all be proud of them.
The kids have worked hard to get their stock in shape for this show and we congratulate them on the success we know they'll have.

COON IS GOP CATCHER

The topic of this strategy conference is how to get rid of the Democrats; not from the political scene, but from the baseball diamond. Involved in the discussion is the battery for the Republican Congressional baseball team which will square off against the Democratic team in Washington's Griffith Stadium June 19. At the left is Congressman Sam Coon from Oregon's Second District, talking it over with GOP pitcher and manager, Representative Glenn Davis of Wisconsin. Coon has caught for the Republicans in two of these charity contests. Last year he drove in two runs.

Mrs. George Fox

Eight Rufus high school graduates and five grade school graduates marched down the aisle May 24 at Rufus school auditorium to the Processional played by Betty Haven. The stage was flanked with red and white crepe paper streamers on the sides and back. These are the school colors.

Large vases of flowers on the edge of the stage made the setting complete for the graduates and speakers. Mrs. W. M. Franklin gave the Invocation. Patty Blackburne, Nadine Griggs, Valerie Liacus with Grace Franklin at the piano sang "Aloha Oe". Leslie Hascall, principal gave the introductions. Carol Grant gave the Salutatorian address. Jim Franklin sang "Good Health, Good Luck, God Bless You" with his mother accompanying. Walter J. Morris gave the Valedictorian address. Mrs. Hascall introduced the speaker, Clyde Beard, principal of The Dalles high school. Mr. Beard made an inspiring talk to the graduates telling them how much education meant.

Mrs. M. Parry introduced the 8th grade graduates, each giving a brief summary of their grammar school education. The graduates are Robert W. Byrd, Charles E. Griggs, Tom R. Kimbell, H. Anne Peterson and Nadine L. Grant. F. William Macnab, school board chairman, gave out the diplomas to Walter J. Morris, Gerald W. Brackett, Russell R. Blake, Milton J. Franklin, Elaine W. Eaton. Mr. Hascall then introduced awards to the different students. Mrs. Franklin gave the Benediction and Betty Haven played the Recessional. The students lined up in the back of the gym to receive the congratulations of relatives and friends.

your Equitable representative says!

"PUT YOUR OPERATING MONEY TO WORK..."

Your Equitable man can show you how to make earnings on your operating funds and still keep them where you can use them. That's one big reason why so many men who run farms, ranches, and other businesses are so pleased with their Equitable plans. The next big reason is Equitable's unmatched safety. Look at the facts: this firm was formed in 1890, has never closed its doors on a business day, and has never had to reorganize. What's more, Equitable has always paid each saver every cent of principal and earnings due him. Find out just what this plan can do for you. To learn more, ask your Equitable man or send the coupon.
