

Moro Personals

Mrs. Tom Winston of Seattle, Wn., was here last week to visit her aunt, Mrs. Tom Woodcock and Friday her husband and sister, Mrs. Carmen Lindvall came to take her home. The women will be remembered by older Grass alley residents as Carmen and Valda Chandler about 40 years ago.

Neal Freeman returned to Moro to help his mother get her house in order after the fire that destroyed her refrigerator last week.

David Moore is home from College in Portland to spend the summer, Jim Roberson is back from Pacific where he graduated in May.

Keith Nelson arrived in town last week end and went to Hood River to visit his father, E. O. Nelson for a few days. With him is another youth, "Dusty" Rhodes from Philadelphia, also a student at the university of Arizona. The boys will be back in Tucson Monday to start summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cushman, Mr. and Mrs. Art Watkins, Mrs. Dorothy Dunlap and Mrs. Leatia Wilson were in Lebanon May 27 to attend the wedding when Dorothy Wilson became the bride of Joseph Abbott at the First Christian church there. Both live in Springfield where she works for a bank and he is proprietor of a drive-in restaurant.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Sayers were in Klamath Falls last week to attend the meeting of agricultural credit boards.

Marion McKee and son, Gordon, were here the first of the week from Portland to visit friends in Sherman county.

Mrs. Ward Sybouts was the honor guest Monday night at a pink and blue shower held at the Moro Community church. Mrs. Cloyd Duncan, Mrs. Ted Thompson and Mrs. Bill Hall were hostesses for the occasion. Bingo was the diversion of the evening, each low number bringing a gift wrapped package for Mrs. Sybouts to unwrap. Refreshments were served after all the gift packages were unwrapped for the pleasure of all. An out of town guest was the mother of Mrs. Sybouts here for a visit with her daughter and family from her home in Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Alsop and family of four children were here Tuesday to visit his parents Mr. and Mrs. Mac Alsop. They live at Sacramento, California.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson are in Palo Alto this week to see their son graduate from Stanford university.

B. H. Roberson and George Nesbit of Goldendale were in Olympia, Wn., Monday to sit in on a meeting with highway authorities discussing the problems of construction of a bridge at Biggs. Roby reports the conference showed progress.

There's a small coon at the Coons place, adding one more to the family. Not exactly a member of the family, however, having been caught near DeMoss this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hoskinson are leaving Friday afternoon accompanied by Miss Jean Nelson to go to Malden, Missouri, where their son, Bob, is stationed at the Malden Air Field. Upon their arrival Bob and Jean will be married and Mr. and Mrs. Hoskinson will fly back home Saturday the 16th.

Jack Beatie, known to many Sherman countians when proprietor of the Hiway tavern at The Dalles, died at the Veterans' hospital Monday after a long illness that reduced his once huge size to a mere shadow of his former self.

Interest in Junior league, American Legion baseball, has revived here because of the good high school team and, with the aid of some parents and baseball enthusiasts a team has been organized in the county. Today the boys and managers are going to John Day for their first game.

HINTS FOR HOUSEKEEPERS

If caring for the house and family leaves you fagged at the end of the day, it may be that you need to streamline ways of doing household jobs.

According to Hallene Price, home management specialist at OSC, women spend from 7 to 10 hours a day in and around the home caring for the house and family.

To help save energy, work and time, she offers these hints:

Cut down ironing time by folding clothes as they come from the line or dryer. Wrinkles in underwear, pillow cases, tea towels, tee-shirts and pajamas can be smoothed out by hand. Put laundered sheets back on beds instead of spending time in folding them.

Let dishes air-dry on a rack. If they're scalded well with hot water, they'll dry quickly.

Arrange your cleaning so that you can clean "spare rooms" less often than the rest of the house.

Call children once in the morning rather than many times. This may take some extra guidance, explains Miss Price, but it may help save wear and tear on mother.

Make full use of your electrical appliances. The mixer might be used to mash potatoes; the freezer used to store extra quantities of foods that can be prepared at one time.

In cooking use small pieces of kitchen equipment such as a peeler to clean carrots and potatoes, tongs to handle hot foods, household scissors for cutting up vegetables.

When making biscuits or cookies use the "drop" method. No rolling pin or cutter is necessary.

and no messy clean-up. If yours is a problem of "not enough time," Miss Price suggests you check your present work pattern. See if there are things you can eliminate from your daily routine. Find an easier and quicker way to do a job, and set up innate putting, is her advice.

It is a pleasure to the bank to have new business coming into town and spending good money to make improvements and fill out the vacant lots available. Have you noticed that not many are left.

New highway construction will certainly improve travel conditions until the tourist business will be second only to wheat as a source of income.

MAKE HAIL INSURANCE A MOST COMFORTABLE ITEM TO HAVE

Everyone Buving Hail Insurance this week says, "Now I can sleep better" Look at it this way - if you lose only one wheat crop in 67 you break even on the cost. This does not consider that it is a deductible item on your income taxes. Considering that, you insure your wheat crops for upwards of 100 years for one crop loss.

Can you afford the loss of crops and sleepless nights for 100 years for such money
