The answers to everyday insurance problems*
By Frank Ketter

QUESTION: Is it necessary, in filing a claim for a fire loss, to give the insurance company a complete list of all items destroyed along with their values?

ANSWER: Yes, as a rule, when submitting a proof of loss, you must list each item and its actual cash value. You can see the value of taking a household inventory every now and then—and keeping the inventory in a safe deposit box.

*If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.

Let's Judge by the Record TAXES

It's a Shocking Fact That: AL ULLMAN'S OPPOSITION VOTED AGAINST TAX CUTS FOR INDIVIDUALS Both in 1954 and 1955. Yet He Voted For Tax Cuts for Corporations and Stockholders Which Benefitted Only 8% of the American Families.

AL ULLMAN BELIEVES THAT:

Tax Laws Should Be Revised To Benefit the Small Business Operation, Farmers and Wage Earners. He Will Work for Laws Giving Small Businessmen Tax Equality With Corporations.
