

Moro Personals

Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Goodenberger will be honored at a "Coffee Hour" following next Sunday morning services at the Community Presbyterian church. Members of the Missionary society will be the hostesses. The people of the community are cordially invited to attend.

Funeral services for James M. Dyce were held from the Community church Tuesday afternoon with Rev. Ernest Goodenberger officiating. After the services interment was made in the Odd-Fellows cemetery in The Dalles.

Charles Fulton was taken to a hospital in The Dalles Tuesday in what seemed a serious condition. Mr. and Mrs. Paul May are now owners of the Sunrise grocery at Albany and would like to have friends stop and see them.

Mrs. Esta May Powell is up from her home in Portland to visit her son and look after some business here.

Jack Noonan and wife returned last week from a visit to his old home in Nebraska, where they found it pretty hot.

Luther Davis, Harry Justesen and Slim West overturned in the Davis pick-up Tuesday night while going to Grass Valley to attend a meeting of the grain growers. All were hurt but not seriously and the pick-up was demolished.

MORO COMMUNITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

There is a nursery for Church School for all ages 9-45. Morning Worship Service 11 a. m. There is a nursery for pre-children during the church hour.

The Westminster Fellowship groups meet Sunday afternoon at 5:30. All young people in Junior and Senior High are urged to come.

Choir rehearsals at the church Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Ernest C. Goodenberger, Pastor

Rufus Personals

Mrs. George Fox Mr. and Mrs. Leland Medler and son Doug spent Monday in Portland on business.

Mrs. Sarah Giannonatti was a Sunday dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Macnab and family. After dinner all of them called on Mr. and Mrs. Morris Burnet and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Morgan visitors from California spent a few days at the Will Huck home. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil White were Sunday visitors there also.

Mr. and Mrs. Harland McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hollinger and Mrs. Kate Hollinger all went to Harlandview grange Saturday night where the two women took the 1st and 2nd degrees. They got home in time to take in the Rufus grange dance, which Leroy Belshee and his orchestra played for. The crowd is increasing as the dances go on. The H.E.C. served supper.

Several more lucky hunters bagged bucks this last week. However some of them had to go into adjoining counties to get good hunting. Several does have been spotted in Sherman county but this county doesn't have a doe season this year.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mathieson are putting a new roof on their house in which Mrs. Jean Thompson lives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pierce, Bonnie Glen and Lila Lee of Glenwood, Wn., her grandmother, Mrs. Antonie Kuhnhausen.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Dutton had as houseguests for two days Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Boots of Lebanon.

Recent visitors at the Ernest Shull home were Mrs. Shull's cousin and his wife, Halbert Stewart of Salem.

Friends were saddened to hear of the passing of S. P. Boice, long time resident of Wasco. He passed away Thursday morning, Oct. 4, from a heart attack. The funeral was Monday in Camas, Wn., where the Boices had lived for the past few years. He had worked for the Crown Zellerbach Paper Mill since leaving Wasco and had just retired a few days before his death. Besides his wife, Faye he leaves three sons, Grant, Gordon and Glenn; a daughter, Mrs. Ramona Marchbanks and six grandchildren.

Mrs. Gordon Hilderbrand was hostess at a pink and blue shower given for Mrs. Dewayne Roe Saturday evening, Oct. 7. The guest of honor was presented a corsage of pink carnations. A bassinet and a table covered by a pink and white brocade cloth, and centered with a large bouquet of pink and white Michelmas daisies held the gifts. Another table covered with a pink and white cloth, centered by a bouquet of pink and white dahlias flanked by pink and blue candles held a silver tea and coffee service and an appropriately decorated pink and blue cake.

Mrs. Bill Rothery of Ephrata, Wn., cut the cake and Mrs. Ray Roe poured. Miss Carmen Royle and Mrs. Tom Moore won prizes. Present were Mrs. L. E. Kaseberg, Mrs. Paulen Kaseberg, Miss Carmen Royle, Miss Betty Haven, Mrs. Robert Nisbet, Mrs. Tom Moore and Barbara, Mrs. Leona VanGilder, Mrs. Harry Allen, Mrs. Martin Pshigoda, Mrs. Douglas Shull, Mrs. Dave Miller, Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fridley and children have just returned from a two-weeks' trip to the middle west. Accompanying them was Mrs. Fridley's mother, Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent. They visited in Morgan, Utah, Denver and Wray, Colorado.

Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent spent the day Monday visiting with her daughters Mrs. Robert Nisbet and Mrs. Clyde Fridley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocum are parents of a six-pound five-ounce baby girl born October 4. The baby was named Mildred Venice and joins an older sister Debbie. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Yocum and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hendrickson of Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilson, Falls. Great-grandparents are Mr. Mrs. Richard Bruner and the hostesses. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. W. Moss of Prineville, Mrs. Bill Rothery of Ephrata, Wn., Mrs. Kelly Roe and Mrs. Ray Roe of LaGrande and Mrs. Delphia Ward of Battleground, Wn.

Art Smith and Harry VanGilder spent several days in Spray hunting.

The Tillicum club met at the home of Mrs. L. L. Funk at 1:30 p. m. Thursday for a dessert luncheon with 11 members and two guests present. The afternoon was spent playing bridge with Mrs. James Maddox winning high and Mrs. Anna Lee low. Mrs. Harold Engberg and Mrs. Idah Everett were guests with the latter taking guest prize.

The annual teachers' reception was held last Thursday evening with the three Wasco clergymen furnishing the program. Father Martin Quigley gave a very entertaining and informative talk on his trip to Ireland, Paris and Rome this past summer, as well as some interesting facts about the history and geography of Ireland. Mr. Harold Fowler, minister for the Wasco Church of Christ, played a viola solo, "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen", and Rev. Richard Bruner sang a solo, "Thanks Be to God" accompanied by Miss Betty Haven. Light refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent visiting and becoming acquainted with the teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fridley and children have just returned from a two-weeks' trip to the middle west. Accompanying them was Mrs. Fridley's mother, Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent. They visited in Morgan, Utah, Denver and Wray, Colorado.

Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent spent the day Monday visiting with her daughters Mrs. Robert Nisbet and Mrs. Clyde Fridley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocum are parents of a six-pound five-ounce baby girl born October 4. The baby was named Mildred Venice and joins an older sister Debbie. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Yocum and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hendrickson of Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilson, Falls. Great-grandparents are Mr. Mrs. Richard Bruner and the hostesses. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. W. Moss of Prineville, Mrs. Bill Rothery of Ephrata, Wn., Mrs. Kelly Roe and Mrs. Ray Roe of LaGrande and Mrs. Delphia Ward of Battleground, Wn.

Art Smith and Harry VanGilder spent several days in Spray hunting.

The Tillicum club met at the home of Mrs. L. L. Funk at 1:30 p. m. Thursday for a dessert luncheon with 11 members and two guests present. The afternoon was spent playing bridge with Mrs. James Maddox winning high and Mrs. Anna Lee low. Mrs. Harold Engberg and Mrs. Idah Everett were guests with the latter taking guest prize.

The annual teachers' reception was held last Thursday evening with the three Wasco clergymen furnishing the program. Father Martin Quigley gave a very entertaining and informative talk on his trip to Ireland, Paris and Rome this past summer, as well as some interesting facts about the history and geography of Ireland. Mr. Harold Fowler, minister for the Wasco Church of Christ, played a viola solo, "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen", and Rev. Richard Bruner sang a solo, "Thanks Be to God" accompanied by Miss Betty Haven. Light refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent visiting and becoming acquainted with the teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fridley and children have just returned from a two-weeks' trip to the middle west. Accompanying them was Mrs. Fridley's mother, Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent. They visited in Morgan, Utah, Denver and Wray, Colorado.

Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent spent the day Monday visiting with her daughters Mrs. Robert Nisbet and Mrs. Clyde Fridley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocum are parents of a six-pound five-ounce baby girl born October 4. The baby was named Mildred Venice and joins an older sister Debbie. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Yocum and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hendrickson of Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilson, Falls. Great-grandparents are Mr. Mrs. Richard Bruner and the hostesses. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. W. Moss of Prineville, Mrs. Bill Rothery of Ephrata, Wn., Mrs. Kelly Roe and Mrs. Ray Roe of LaGrande and Mrs. Delphia Ward of Battleground, Wn.

Art Smith and Harry VanGilder spent several days in Spray hunting.

The Tillicum club met at the home of Mrs. L. L. Funk at 1:30 p. m. Thursday for a dessert luncheon with 11 members and two guests present. The afternoon was spent playing bridge with Mrs. James Maddox winning high and Mrs. Anna Lee low. Mrs. Harold Engberg and Mrs. Idah Everett were guests with the latter taking guest prize.

The annual teachers' reception was held last Thursday evening with the three Wasco clergymen furnishing the program. Father Martin Quigley gave a very entertaining and informative talk on his trip to Ireland, Paris and Rome this past summer, as well as some interesting facts about the history and geography of Ireland. Mr. Harold Fowler, minister for the Wasco Church of Christ, played a viola solo, "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen", and Rev. Richard Bruner sang a solo, "Thanks Be to God" accompanied by Miss Betty Haven. Light refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent visiting and becoming acquainted with the teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fridley and children have just returned from a two-weeks' trip to the middle west. Accompanying them was Mrs. Fridley's mother, Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent. They visited in Morgan, Utah, Denver and Wray, Colorado.

Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent spent the day Monday visiting with her daughters Mrs. Robert Nisbet and Mrs. Clyde Fridley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocum are parents of a six-pound five-ounce baby girl born October 4. The baby was named Mildred Venice and joins an older sister Debbie. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Yocum and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hendrickson of Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilson, Falls. Great-grandparents are Mr. Mrs. Richard Bruner and the hostesses. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. W. Moss of Prineville, Mrs. Bill Rothery of Ephrata, Wn., Mrs. Kelly Roe and Mrs. Ray Roe of LaGrande and Mrs. Delphia Ward of Battleground, Wn.

Art Smith and Harry VanGilder spent several days in Spray hunting.

The Tillicum club met at the home of Mrs. L. L. Funk at 1:30 p. m. Thursday for a dessert luncheon with 11 members and two guests present. The afternoon was spent playing bridge with Mrs. James Maddox winning high and Mrs. Anna Lee low. Mrs. Harold Engberg and Mrs. Idah Everett were guests with the latter taking guest prize.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pierce, Bonnie Glen and Lila Lee of Glenwood, Wn., her grandmother, Mrs. Antonie Kuhnhausen.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Dutton had as houseguests for two days Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Boots of Lebanon.

Recent visitors at the Ernest Shull home were Mrs. Shull's cousin and his wife, Halbert Stewart of Salem.

Friends were saddened to hear of the passing of S. P. Boice, long time resident of Wasco. He passed away Thursday morning, Oct. 4, from a heart attack. The funeral was Monday in Camas, Wn., where the Boices had lived for the past few years. He had worked for the Crown Zellerbach Paper Mill since leaving Wasco and had just retired a few days before his death. Besides his wife, Faye he leaves three sons, Grant, Gordon and Glenn; a daughter, Mrs. Ramona Marchbanks and six grandchildren.

Mrs. Gordon Hilderbrand was hostess at a pink and blue shower given for Mrs. Dewayne Roe Saturday evening, Oct. 7. The guest of honor was presented a corsage of pink carnations. A bassinet and a table covered by a pink and white brocade cloth, and centered with a large bouquet of pink and white Michelmas daisies held the gifts. Another table covered with a pink and white cloth, centered by a bouquet of pink and white dahlias flanked by pink and blue candles held a silver tea and coffee service and an appropriately decorated pink and blue cake.

Mrs. Bill Rothery of Ephrata, Wn., cut the cake and Mrs. Ray Roe poured. Miss Carmen Royle and Mrs. Tom Moore won prizes. Present were Mrs. L. E. Kaseberg, Mrs. Paulen Kaseberg, Miss Carmen Royle, Miss Betty Haven, Mrs. Robert Nisbet, Mrs. Tom Moore and Barbara, Mrs. Leona VanGilder, Mrs. Harry Allen, Mrs. Martin Pshigoda, Mrs. Douglas Shull, Mrs. Dave Miller, Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fridley and children have just returned from a two-weeks' trip to the middle west. Accompanying them was Mrs. Fridley's mother, Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent. They visited in Morgan, Utah, Denver and Wray, Colorado.

Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent spent the day Monday visiting with her daughters Mrs. Robert Nisbet and Mrs. Clyde Fridley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocum are parents of a six-pound five-ounce baby girl born October 4. The baby was named Mildred Venice and joins an older sister Debbie. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Yocum and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hendrickson of Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilson, Falls. Great-grandparents are Mr. Mrs. Richard Bruner and the hostesses. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. W. Moss of Prineville, Mrs. Bill Rothery of Ephrata, Wn., Mrs. Kelly Roe and Mrs. Ray Roe of LaGrande and Mrs. Delphia Ward of Battleground, Wn.

Art Smith and Harry VanGilder spent several days in Spray hunting.

The Tillicum club met at the home of Mrs. L. L. Funk at 1:30 p. m. Thursday for a dessert luncheon with 11 members and two guests present. The afternoon was spent playing bridge with Mrs. James Maddox winning high and Mrs. Anna Lee low. Mrs. Harold Engberg and Mrs. Idah Everett were guests with the latter taking guest prize.

The annual teachers' reception was held last Thursday evening with the three Wasco clergymen furnishing the program. Father Martin Quigley gave a very entertaining and informative talk on his trip to Ireland, Paris and Rome this past summer, as well as some interesting facts about the history and geography of Ireland. Mr. Harold Fowler, minister for the Wasco Church of Christ, played a viola solo, "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen", and Rev. Richard Bruner sang a solo, "Thanks Be to God" accompanied by Miss Betty Haven. Light refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent visiting and becoming acquainted with the teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fridley and children have just returned from a two-weeks' trip to the middle west. Accompanying them was Mrs. Fridley's mother, Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent. They visited in Morgan, Utah, Denver and Wray, Colorado.

Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent spent the day Monday visiting with her daughters Mrs. Robert Nisbet and Mrs. Clyde Fridley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocum are parents of a six-pound five-ounce baby girl born October 4. The baby was named Mildred Venice and joins an older sister Debbie. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Yocum and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hendrickson of Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilson, Falls. Great-grandparents are Mr. Mrs. Richard Bruner and the hostesses. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. W. Moss of Prineville, Mrs. Bill Rothery of Ephrata, Wn., Mrs. Kelly Roe and Mrs. Ray Roe of LaGrande and Mrs. Delphia Ward of Battleground, Wn.

Art Smith and Harry VanGilder spent several days in Spray hunting.

The Tillicum club met at the home of Mrs. L. L. Funk at 1:30 p. m. Thursday for a dessert luncheon with 11 members and two guests present. The afternoon was spent playing bridge with Mrs. James Maddox winning high and Mrs. Anna Lee low. Mrs. Harold Engberg and Mrs. Idah Everett were guests with the latter taking guest prize.

The annual teachers' reception was held last Thursday evening with the three Wasco clergymen furnishing the program. Father Martin Quigley gave a very entertaining and informative talk on his trip to Ireland, Paris and Rome this past summer, as well as some interesting facts about the history and geography of Ireland. Mr. Harold Fowler, minister for the Wasco Church of Christ, played a viola solo, "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen", and Rev. Richard Bruner sang a solo, "Thanks Be to God" accompanied by Miss Betty Haven. Light refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent visiting and becoming acquainted with the teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fridley and children have just returned from a two-weeks' trip to the middle west. Accompanying them was Mrs. Fridley's mother, Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent. They visited in Morgan, Utah, Denver and Wray, Colorado.

Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent spent the day Monday visiting with her daughters Mrs. Robert Nisbet and Mrs. Clyde Fridley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocum are parents of a six-pound five-ounce baby girl born October 4. The baby was named Mildred Venice and joins an older sister Debbie. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Yocum and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hendrickson of Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilson, Falls. Great-grandparents are Mr. Mrs. Richard Bruner and the hostesses. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. W. Moss of Prineville, Mrs. Bill Rothery of Ephrata, Wn., Mrs. Kelly Roe and Mrs. Ray Roe of LaGrande and Mrs. Delphia Ward of Battleground, Wn.

Art Smith and Harry VanGilder spent several days in Spray hunting.

The Tillicum club met at the home of Mrs. L. L. Funk at 1:30 p. m. Thursday for a dessert luncheon with 11 members and two guests present. The afternoon was spent playing bridge with Mrs. James Maddox winning high and Mrs. Anna Lee low. Mrs. Harold Engberg and Mrs. Idah Everett were guests with the latter taking guest prize.

The annual teachers' reception was held last Thursday evening with the three Wasco clergymen furnishing the program. Father Martin Quigley gave a very entertaining and informative talk on his trip to Ireland, Paris and Rome this past summer, as well as some interesting facts about the history and geography of Ireland. Mr. Harold Fowler, minister for the Wasco Church of Christ, played a viola solo, "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen", and Rev. Richard Bruner sang a solo, "Thanks Be to God" accompanied by Miss Betty Haven. Light refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent visiting and becoming acquainted with the teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fridley and children have just returned from a two-weeks' trip to the middle west. Accompanying them was Mrs. Fridley's mother, Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent. They visited in Morgan, Utah, Denver and Wray, Colorado.

Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent spent the day Monday visiting with her daughters Mrs. Robert Nisbet and Mrs. Clyde Fridley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocum are parents of a six-pound five-ounce baby girl born October 4. The baby was named Mildred Venice and joins an older sister Debbie. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Yocum and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hendrickson of Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilson, Falls. Great-grandparents are Mr. Mrs. Richard Bruner and the hostesses. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. W. Moss of Prineville, Mrs. Bill Rothery of Ephrata, Wn., Mrs. Kelly Roe and Mrs. Ray Roe of LaGrande and Mrs. Delphia Ward of Battleground, Wn.

Art Smith and Harry VanGilder spent several days in Spray hunting.

The Tillicum club met at the home of Mrs. L. L. Funk at 1:30 p. m. Thursday for a dessert luncheon with 11 members and two guests present. The afternoon was spent playing bridge with Mrs. James Maddox winning high and Mrs. Anna Lee low. Mrs. Harold Engberg and Mrs. Idah Everett were guests with the latter taking guest prize.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pierce, Bonnie Glen and Lila Lee of Glenwood, Wn., her grandmother, Mrs. Antonie Kuhnhausen.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Dutton had as houseguests for two days Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Boots of Lebanon.

Recent visitors at the Ernest Shull home were Mrs. Shull's cousin and his wife, Halbert Stewart of Salem.

Friends were saddened to hear of the passing of S. P. Boice, long time resident of Wasco. He passed away Thursday morning, Oct. 4, from a heart attack. The funeral was Monday in Camas, Wn., where the Boices had lived for the past few years. He had worked for the Crown Zellerbach Paper Mill since leaving Wasco and had just retired a few days before his death. Besides his wife, Faye he leaves three sons, Grant, Gordon and Glenn; a daughter, Mrs. Ramona Marchbanks and six grandchildren.

Mrs. Gordon Hilderbrand was hostess at a pink and blue shower given for Mrs. Dewayne Roe Saturday evening, Oct. 7. The guest of honor was presented a corsage of pink carnations. A bassinet and a table covered by a pink and white brocade cloth, and centered with a large bouquet of pink and white Michelmas daisies held the gifts. Another table covered with a pink and white cloth, centered by a bouquet of pink and white dahlias flanked by pink and blue candles held a silver tea and coffee service and an appropriately decorated pink and blue cake.

Mrs. Bill Rothery of Ephrata, Wn., cut the cake and Mrs. Ray Roe poured. Miss Carmen Royle and Mrs. Tom Moore won prizes. Present were Mrs. L. E. Kaseberg, Mrs. Paulen Kaseberg, Miss Carmen Royle, Miss Betty Haven, Mrs. Robert Nisbet, Mrs. Tom Moore and Barbara, Mrs. Leona VanGilder, Mrs. Harry Allen, Mrs. Martin Pshigoda, Mrs. Douglas Shull, Mrs. Dave Miller, Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fridley and children have just returned from a two-weeks' trip to the middle west. Accompanying them was Mrs. Fridley's mother, Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent. They visited in Morgan, Utah, Denver and Wray, Colorado.

Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent spent the day Monday visiting with her daughters Mrs. Robert Nisbet and Mrs. Clyde Fridley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocum are parents of a six-pound five-ounce baby girl born October 4. The baby was named Mildred Venice and joins an older sister Debbie. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Yocum and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hendrickson of Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilson, Falls. Great-grandparents are Mr. Mrs. Richard Bruner and the hostesses. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. W. Moss of Prineville, Mrs. Bill Rothery of Ephrata, Wn., Mrs. Kelly Roe and Mrs. Ray Roe of LaGrande and Mrs. Delphia Ward of Battleground, Wn.

Art Smith and Harry VanGilder spent several days in Spray hunting.

The Tillicum club met at the home of Mrs. L. L. Funk at 1:30 p. m. Thursday for a dessert luncheon with 11 members and two guests present. The afternoon was spent playing bridge with Mrs. James Maddox winning high and Mrs. Anna Lee low. Mrs. Harold Engberg and Mrs. Idah Everett were guests with the latter taking guest prize.

The annual teachers' reception was held last Thursday evening with the three Wasco clergymen furnishing the program. Father Martin Quigley gave a very entertaining and informative talk on his trip to Ireland, Paris and Rome this past summer, as well as some interesting facts about the history and geography of Ireland. Mr. Harold Fowler, minister for the Wasco Church of Christ, played a viola solo, "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen", and Rev. Richard Bruner sang a solo, "Thanks Be to God" accompanied by Miss Betty Haven. Light refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent visiting and becoming acquainted with the teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fridley and children have just returned from a two-weeks' trip to the middle west. Accompanying them was Mrs. Fridley's mother, Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent. They visited in Morgan, Utah, Denver and Wray, Colorado.

Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent spent the day Monday visiting with her daughters Mrs. Robert Nisbet and Mrs. Clyde Fridley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocum are parents of a six-pound five-ounce baby girl born October 4. The baby was named Mildred Venice and joins an older sister Debbie. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Yocum and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hendrickson of Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilson, Falls. Great-grandparents are Mr. Mrs. Richard Bruner and the hostesses. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. W. Moss of Prineville, Mrs. Bill Rothery of Ephrata, Wn., Mrs. Kelly Roe and Mrs. Ray Roe of LaGrande and Mrs. Delphia Ward of Battleground, Wn.

Art Smith and Harry VanGilder spent several days in Spray hunting.

The Tillicum club met at the home of Mrs. L. L. Funk at 1:30 p. m. Thursday for a dessert luncheon with 11 members and two guests present. The afternoon was spent playing bridge with Mrs. James Maddox winning high and Mrs. Anna Lee low. Mrs. Harold Engberg and Mrs. Idah Everett were guests with the latter taking guest prize.

The annual teachers' reception was held last Thursday evening with the three Wasco clergymen furnishing the program. Father Martin Quigley gave a very entertaining and informative talk on his trip to Ireland, Paris and Rome this past summer, as well as some interesting facts about the history and geography of Ireland. Mr. Harold Fowler, minister for the Wasco Church of Christ, played a viola solo, "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen", and Rev. Richard Bruner sang a solo, "Thanks Be to God" accompanied by Miss Betty Haven. Light refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent visiting and becoming acquainted with the teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fridley and children have just returned from a two-weeks' trip to the middle west. Accompanying them was Mrs. Fridley's mother, Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent. They visited in Morgan, Utah, Denver and Wray, Colorado.

Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent spent the day Monday visiting with her daughters Mrs. Robert Nisbet and Mrs. Clyde Fridley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocum are parents of a six-pound five-ounce baby girl born October 4. The baby was named Mildred Venice and joins an older sister Debbie. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Yocum and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hendrickson of Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilson, Falls. Great-grandparents are Mr. Mrs. Richard Bruner and the hostesses. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. W. Moss of Prineville, Mrs. Bill Rothery of Ephrata, Wn., Mrs. Kelly Roe and Mrs. Ray Roe of LaGrande and Mrs. Delphia Ward of Battleground, Wn.

Art Smith and Harry VanGilder spent several days in Spray hunting.

The Tillicum club met at the home of Mrs. L. L. Funk at 1:30 p. m. Thursday for a dessert luncheon with 11 members and two guests present. The afternoon was spent playing bridge with Mrs. James Maddox winning high and Mrs. Anna Lee low. Mrs. Harold Engberg and Mrs. Idah Everett were guests with the latter taking guest prize.

The annual teachers' reception was held last Thursday evening with the three Wasco clergymen furnishing the program. Father Martin Quigley gave a very entertaining and informative talk on his trip to Ireland, Paris and Rome this past summer, as well as some interesting facts about the history and geography of Ireland. Mr. Harold Fowler, minister for the Wasco Church of Christ, played a viola solo, "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen", and Rev. Richard Bruner sang a solo, "Thanks Be to God" accompanied by Miss Betty Haven. Light refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent visiting and becoming acquainted with the teachers.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fridley and children have just returned from a two-weeks' trip to the middle west. Accompanying them was Mrs. Fridley's mother, Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent. They visited in Morgan, Utah, Denver and Wray, Colorado.

Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent spent the day Monday visiting with her daughters Mrs. Robert Nisbet and Mrs. Clyde Fridley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocum are parents of a six-pound five-ounce baby girl born October 4. The baby was named Mildred Venice and joins an older sister Debbie. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Yocum and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hendrickson of Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilson, Falls. Great-grandparents are Mr. Mrs. Richard Bruner and the hostesses. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. W. Moss of Prineville, Mrs. Bill Rothery of Ephrata, Wn., Mrs. Kelly Roe and Mrs. Ray Roe of LaGrande and Mrs. Delphia Ward of Battleground, Wn.

Art Smith and Harry VanGilder spent several days in Spray hunting.

The Tillicum club met at the home of Mrs. L. L. Funk at 1:30 p. m. Thursday for a dessert luncheon with 11 members and two guests present. The afternoon was spent playing bridge with Mrs. James Maddox winning high and Mrs. Anna Lee low. Mrs. Harold Engberg and Mrs. Idah Everett were guests with the latter taking guest prize.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pierce, Bonnie Glen and Lila Lee of Glenwood, Wn., her grandmother, Mrs. Antonie Kuhnhausen.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Dutton had as houseguests for two days Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Boots of Lebanon.

Recent visitors at the Ernest Shull home were Mrs. Shull's cousin and his wife, Halbert Stewart of Salem.

Friends were saddened to hear of the passing of S. P. Boice, long time resident of Wasco. He passed away Thursday morning, Oct. 4, from a heart attack. The funeral was Monday in Camas, Wn., where the Boices had lived for the past few years. He had worked for the Crown Zellerbach Paper Mill since leaving Wasco and had just retired a few days before his death. Besides his wife, Faye he leaves three sons, Grant, Gordon and Glenn; a daughter, Mrs. Ramona Marchbanks and six grandchildren.

Mrs. Gordon Hilderbrand was hostess at a pink and blue shower given for Mrs. Dewayne Roe Saturday evening, Oct. 7. The guest of honor was presented a corsage of pink carnations. A bassinet and a table covered by a pink and white brocade cloth, and centered with a large bouquet of pink and white Michelmas daisies held the gifts. Another table covered with a pink and white cloth, centered by a bouquet of pink and white dahlias flanked by pink and blue candles held a silver tea and coffee service and an appropriately decorated pink and blue cake.

Mrs. Bill Rothery of Ephrata, Wn., cut the cake and Mrs. Ray Roe poured. Miss Carmen Royle and Mrs. Tom Moore won prizes. Present were Mrs. L. E. Kaseberg, Mrs. Paulen Kaseberg, Miss Carmen Royle, Miss Betty Haven, Mrs. Robert Nisbet, Mrs. Tom Moore and Barbara, Mrs. Leona VanGilder, Mrs. Harry Allen, Mrs. Martin Pshigoda, Mrs. Douglas Shull, Mrs. Dave Miller, Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fridley and children have just returned from a two-weeks' trip to the middle west. Accompanying them was Mrs. Fridley's mother, Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent. They visited in Morgan, Utah, Denver and Wray, Colorado.

Mrs. D. McConaughy of Kent spent the day Monday visiting with her daughters Mrs. Robert Nisbet and Mrs. Clyde Fridley.