Sunday, October 21, Laymens' day was observed in the worship service of the Wasco Methodist church. The service was planned and directed by the church lay leader, Clyde Fridley. The sermon of the morning entitled, "The Truth Shall Make You Free", was delivered by Paulen Kaseberg and Clyde Fridley. The scripture was read by Douglas Alley. The church choir sang a negro spiritual "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot" for the anthem.

In the three years of the Eisenhower Administration, over a quarter of a billion dollars has been appropriated for school construction.

One billion and a quarter dollars is being saved annually by the Eisenhower Administration through the reduction of Federal civilian employment by 280,000 in three years.
