Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Amidon left this week for Monroe, Wash., where they will remain until after the first of the year, when they expect to go south for several months before returning to Moro. They stopped in Portland a few days and members of the Amidon family there along with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoskinson, had their Thanksgiving dinner Sunday evening before Mr. and Mrs. Amidon went on to Washington.

The Legion Parcel Post sale was very successful with $28.50 taken in. Plans are being made for a Bingo party in the near future.

Rebekahs will meet in Moro the evening of November 27 the hour being seven o'clock. They will go to Grass Valley where an initiation for new Moro members will be given with Grass Valley Rebekahs assisting. As many as can come are urged to attend.

Ray Dean Gordy, a former resident of Moro, has joined the air force and is stationed at San Antonio, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Douma and daughter, Mrs. Robert Cockburn, were in Portland the latter part of the week. Mrs. Cockburn was shopping in preparation for her stay of a year or more in France. She expects to leave November 29th to join her husband.

Miss Marilyn Olsen entertained her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Olsen Saturday night observing their 24th wedding anniversary. It was a surprise party.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brandon and daughter, Jody of Portland are Thanksgiving day guests at the W. T. Balsiger home.

Mrs. Lena Gosch writes from The Dalles that Mrs. Annie Eddy had passed away suddenly September 16 from a heart block. She had been living with her niece, Mrs. Roy Rash at Poulsbo, Washington.

Miss Joyce Andrews, domestic science teacher in the Sherman high school, and her guest, Miss Marilyn Olsen left Wednesday afternoon for the former's home in Seattle for the Thanksgiving holidays. They were accompanied as far as Portland by Miss Edith Paulson, primary teacher, and Mrs. Lynn Teadtke and son, who are spending the vacation time in the city.

Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Goodenberger spent Thanksgiving in Portland with their son, Rev. John Goodenberger and family.

Wasco Study Club Hears Book Review

The Wasco Woman's Study club was called to order by the president Mrs. Vinton Watkins at the home of Mrs. Edward Cardinal. Mrs. W. R. Reid was co-hostess.

The Flag Salute was given to open the meeting, followed by the Club Collect. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Roll call was answered by 21 members, each telling of the reading they most enjoyed.

After the reports, there was discussion, lead by the president on how to keep Wasco clean. No definite action was taken.

All were asked to bring Christmas gifts to the next meeting for the Doernbecher hospital. This meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. B. Estelle Hailey.

At the conclusion of the business meeting the president introduced

Harland McDonald, master, presided at the regular grange meeting Thursday night. The master reminded members the grange officers will be installed at Harlandview grange Sunday December 2 at 2:00 p. m.

For lecturer's program Mrs. Will Huck had readings by the following: "The Heart of Democracy" by Mrs. Bert Swigart; "A Prayer for Peace" by Mrs. Charles Blake; "America's First Thanksgiving" by Mrs. George Fox; "Don't Forget the Little Things" by Mrs. Harland McDonald. The group played two games. The first one "Thanksgiving" where a given number of people were given the letters and the line was formed to spell the word Thanksgiving. The other game was a "Turkey Shoot" with each having two tries with a bow and arrow at a turkey. Charles Blake was best shot. The program ended with Mrs. Charles Blake reading a "Thanksgiving Prayer".

The group enjoyed a social hour over a potluck supper at the end of the business meeting. The next grange meeting on December 6 begins with a 6:30 p. m. pot luck dinner.

Mrs. Earl Weatherford of Olex took her baby daughter to The Dalles Monday where the baby underwent an operation for a hernia. Earl Weatherford who had been elk hunting with Snell Weatherford of Condon and Wayne Friedly of Pendleton up in the Wallowa mountain area came home late Sunday evening. The boys got one elk between them. Earl was in The Dalles Monday morning to be with his wife and daughter at the hospital.

After teasing this area all fall that we might get a freezing night Jack Frost meant it last night when the mercury dropped down to 20° above zero. All the water standing around in puddles was frozen over as well as all the plants and flowers. This was the first time the flowers were nipped this fall at the town of Rufus.

The annual bazaar of St Mary's Catholic church at Wasco was held in the little Legion hall at Wasco Saturday night. The ones going from the Rufus community were Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Will Huck, Mrs. Sarah Giannonatti and Mrs. John Belloni. This must have been your correspondent's lucky night as she won the turkey Lewis Hastings of Wasco donated to the bazaar and which chances were sold on. Also Mrs. Fox held the lucky ticket on the doll and her wardrobe of clothes and furniture.

Helen Bruckert who gave an interesting book review of "Passionate Pilgrim"—the life of Vincent Van Gogh by Lawrence and Elizabeth Hanson.

Van Gogh has been one of the most misinterpreted artists of history, due to the fact epilepsy halted his painting. In spite of the bitter tragedy, he completed more than 800 paintings in his 37 years, sold only two and lived on handouts from his brother all his life.

M-G-M has made a recent film "Last for Life", based on his life, starring Kirk Douglas. The film captures the fierce drive and bitter tragedy in the life of Van Gogh. Refreshments of salad, nut bread, mints, nuts, tea and coffee were served by the hostesses.
