Rufus Personals

Mrs. George Fox

Guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jordan were Mrs. Luna Hoover and her daughter Martha Hoover of Irrigon. Martha is a teacher in the high school at Irrigon.

Friends of Linda Johnson will be glad to hear she is convalescing satisfactorily at her home east of Wasco. Linda's leg was broken just above the knee November 5 as she was boarding the school bus to go home from the Wasco school house. The accident happened when a youngster on a bicycle ran into Linda. Linda's leg is in a cast from her hip to the ankle, therefore it is impossible for her to sit down. She has the Wasco American Legion Auxiliary's hospital bed, and her father has made her an overhead swing to pull herself about in the bed. The cast makes it impossible for Linda to get out of bed without help. Linda is the six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Johnson.

What does television mean to the Rufus community? Well, if a stranger were around to hear some of the remarks (I mean it literally) which were said during the time the whole television line was out, he'd know. Something happened to one of the electrical fuse boxes on the line last Thursday night, and it wasn't until Sunday evening about 8:00 p. m. that anyone at Rufus had a picture.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fox and son Jimmy were guests Thanksgiving day in Portland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wenzel, George Fox Jr. and Mariene Wenzel (their daughter) had come up from OSC the night before and were present too. Then all came back to Rufus for the rest of the week. George Jr. and Mariene left Sunday to resume their studies at OSC.

Wally Morris of Oregon State spent his Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wallis. Wally is a pre-engineering student at OSC. Saturday night Wally spent visiting his former grade school teacher, Mrs. Sarah Giannonatti at Rufus.

Earl Weatherford of Olex came over Thanksgiving morning to return his wife and three children home. They had been guests of Mrs. Weatherford's parents Mr. and Mrs. George Fox for the past ten days. The little three months old daughter, Cheri, who was operated upon for a hernia is getting along fine. She was to have the stitches out last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mathieson left before Thanksgiving on a ten day vacation in California at the home of their son in law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Engels and family.
 Alf Wernmark and Stanley Pearson of The Dalles were guests last Sunday at dinner at the Harland McDonald home. Mrs. Mc-
