

Moro Personals

The Moro Woman's club meeting has been changed to Thursday, December 13, at 2 o'clock in the church social room. This is a Silver Tea and Guest day. Non-members are cordially invited.

Mrs. Mary Mersinger returned to her home in Moro Monday after spending two months in Washington taking care of her sister, Miss Addie Kenny, who fell and broke a hip.

Roy Tiller came down from Hermiston Sunday night to visit his mother, Mrs. Iva Kee and his sister, Mrs. Mac Alsop and family. Mrs. Kee and Roy Tiller were dinner guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Loy Cochran. Mr. Tiller left for home Tuesday afternoon.

B. H. Roberson returned Monday morning from a trip through Montana to Chicago and as far south as Birmingham, Alabama and says that the weather was fine all the way.

Dell Smith of Condon is moving here within a few days to start work for Cushman Equipment Co.

Sheriff Norman Fields went to Portland Wednesday to attend the annual meeting of sheriffs and district attorneys to be held there.

Tom Saxton, who usually drives the mail truck, is down with a case of pneumonia and Tom Jones and Bill Edwards have been filling in.

Mrs. Kelley Wilson and son will soon be home from Fort Lee, Virginia where she has been a few weeks. Kelley has orders to go to Suez and will leaving soon.

and Virgil Fields, Janny McIntyre Lee, Terry and Alice Kaseberg, Hiroshi Taskano, David and Doug Reid, Jeannette Belshee, Gene and Barbara Fridley, Jim and John Thomas, Doug Bish, Mike Lori, Karen Macnab, and Doug Medler. New members were Robert and Carolyn Pearson, Tom and Mary Coats, Gary Wilkinson, Don Dutton and Loren Byrd.

The meeting was called to order by former president Terry Kaseberg. 4-H pledge and flag salute were led by John Fields. There was no old business. Under new business we elected: Lee Kaseberg, president; John Fields, vice president; Sally Fields, sec-treas.; Jeannette Belshee, news reporter; Gene Fridley, Sgt-at-arms; Terry Kaseberg song leader.

Lee then took over the president's office. Our leader, Leonard Fields, introduced new record books and a few other things were discussed.

We have decided to have our meeting the first Sunday of the month at 2 p. m. The meeting was then adjourned and the leaders and junior leaders met to discuss the coming year's activities.

Rufus Personals

Mrs. George Fox
Al and Russell Blake arrived home last Friday after working in Alaska all summer and fall. The boys surprised their parents with an early Christmas gift, an electric automatic washer and dryer and a television set which are already installed and put into service in the Blake home. The boys are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blake who operate the 76 service station and grocery in Rufus.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Macnab wish to remind the Community card club members that they are entertaining the members and their husbands at the Macnab home Monday, December 10, at 8 p. m. The men as well as the women will exchange gifts that night.

There was a card party at the grange hall Saturday night, but due to late advertising not many were there, so no prizes were given.

en. The few that went enjoyed a game amongst themselves.

The Home Ec club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harland McDonald. Mrs. Joe Morris presided at the business meeting with Mrs. Frank Reid secretary taking notes. The members planned the projects for the coming season. A sack lunch was brought and the hostess served cake with whipped cream and coffee at the noon hour. Mrs. Ina Hanson, extension agent, gave a demonstration and talk on care and cleaning of rugs. She cleaned an upholstered chair seat during the lesson. The club will meet at the home of Mrs. George Fox in January.

The Rufus PTA met Monday night at the Rufus school lunch room. President Mrs. Bob Byrd presided at the meeting. Mrs. Harvey Hanson took notes as the regular secretary. Mrs. Stella Tumilson was absent. The members decided to have a spaghetti dinner about February 1. Bill Huck printed some PTA cards and these were given out to the members with paid up dues.

Jack Lloyd, principal, announced the Christmas program on December 21 will consist of songs and readings around a decorated Christmas tree. Santa will be present to greet the children with sacks of candy and nuts. Cookies and coffee will be served for refreshments for a social hour afterwards. The principal thought
