Smith-Smith Wedding Solemnized At Bakersfield, California July 5

Miss Velva Louise Smith of Tulelake, Calif., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Smith of Tulelake former residents of Bakersfield, Calif., became the bride of Larry Dean Smith of The Dalles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don B. Smith in a ceremony held in the First Southern Baptist Church in Bakersfield July 5 at 8 p. m. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Dall Hufft of the First Southern Baptist church in the presence of 200 relatives and friends. The church was decorated with baskets of pink and white gladioli and carnations and candelabra. White bows were at the end of the pews with carnations attached.

Mrs. Art Spain sang, "If I Could Tell You of My Devotion", before the ceremony and Charles Bethell sang, "The Lord's Prayer", at the conclusion, Mrs. Pete Collens was the accompanist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white clipped chantilly lace over airy tulle and taffeta, made with mandarin neckline with iridescent sequin trim, long sleeves and chapel train. The sweetheart cap of scalloped pleated nylon lace over tulle with pearl and sequin held the fingertip veil of English silk illusion. She carried a white orchid with purple throat, with white stephanotis on a lace covered Bible.

Mrs. Keith Davidson of Chickaska, Okla., cousin of the bride was matron of honor. Mrs. Glen Wood of Louisville, Ky., and Miss Jean Creswell of Tulelake, cousin of the bride were bridesmaids. They all wore gowns of pink nylon chiffon over taffeta snugly shirred midriff attached to full chiffon skirt, made with high neckline in front dipping to a V in back. They carried bouquets of pink carnations.

Keith Barnett of Grass Valley was best man and ushers were Jim and Charles Smith, brothers of the bride.

For a wedding trip the bridal couple flew to Portland, Oregon. For traveling the bride wore a grey sheath jumper with matching grey stripped empire jacket, with black patent accessories and a white hat, with the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride graduated from the East Bakerfield high school, attended the Oklahoma Baptist university and the Oregon Tech Institute at Klamath Falls. The groom graduated from the Moro high school and attended the Oregon Tech Institute at Klamath Falls.

The young couple will be at home in The Dalles at 2302 E. 10th St. Mr. Smith is employed as draftsman and surveyor for the Oregon State Highway commission in The Dalles.
