U.S.—Bulwark of Freedom

BIRTHDAY OF A FREE NATION as the Declaration of Independence was presented to Congress in 1776. Contrary to popular belief, this historic document was not signed by Congress on July 4th. Instead, the Act by which the original 13 states broke colonial allegiance to Great Britain was approved by Congress July 2, proclaimed on July 4th, and signed at various times up to Nov. 4.

BIRTHPLACE OF OUR NATION was Independence Hall, Philadelphia, where Continental Congress met, Declaration of Independence adopted and proclaimed, Washington appointed Commander-in-Chief, and U. S. Constitution framed.

SYMBOL OF HUMAN RIGHTS and freedom, the Liberty Bell in Independence Hall rang out at every festival and anniversary of Independence until it cracked in 1835.

oring Mrs. Eugene Spencer of Seattle, at the former's home Tuesday afternoon with about 50 women and children present. A game appropriate for the occasion was played with prizes won by Mrs. Harold Owens, Mrs. Donald von Borstel and Mrs. O. N. Ruggles. Deanna Martin played two accordion numbers and also gave a dialogue "Betty at the Ball Game". The gift table covered with a green cloth with hand-drawn ecru cloth over it, held the many lovely gifts, which Mrs. Spencer opened assisted by her sister, Jerrine Blaylock. The gifts were passed around the room for all to see. A guest book was passed for all to sign and to give a bit of advice. Angel cake was served from a lace covered buffet table centered with a bouquet of sweet peas. Mrs. Boyce Blaylock presided at the silver tea and coffee service and Mrs. Bill Rolfe served the punch.
