BUSY BAKERS BUZZ

The Busy Bakers cooking club met at the home of Erin Wilson August 20 at 2:30 p. m. We discussed our safety and citizenship project. Also, we discussed the demonstrating at the Sherman County Fair. Those who will demonstrate at the fair are to demonstrate making of Butter Cake at the next meeting. We will finish our trash can and posters before the next meeting.

Refreshments of cream puffs and lemonade were served by the hosts.

COUNTY GETS FUNDS
Thirty-three Oregon counties will participate in the $30,000 of state money allocated for predatory animal control in the year ending next June 30.
To obtain these funds, which range from $229 in Hood River county to $2980 in Douglas county, counties must match the state monies.
The appropriation is in connection with the predatory animal program conducted jointly by the counties, the U. S. Fish and Wildlife service and the state department.
Sherman county's share is $321.00
