Sermon theme: "How to Overcome Evil."
A nursery is provided during the church hour.
Ernest C. Goodenberger, Pastor

Kay Macnab played a piano solo. After the program the folks present visited.
The two new school teachers are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pfaff, Jack Lloyd will again be principal and upper grade teacher while Mrs. Sarah Giannonatti comes back again to teach her former room the 3rd and 4th grades. This completes the instructors. The bus drivers are the same with the exception of the Curtis Neal bus. The Neals are moving to the south of the county and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Tom moved to The Dalles for the school year, so there is no need for the bus to go up that direction this year.

OUR WIDE CHOICE OF PRICES enables the family to limit the cost to its needs or wishes.

Brown-Fields

Mrs. Harold E. Brown, formerly Sally Eileen Fields was married in a double ring ceremony, Saturday, Sept. 7 at the Wasco Methodist church, Rev. Richard Bruner officiating. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fields of Wasco. Mr. Brown's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown of Kent.

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a white silk taffeta gown trimmed in Alencon lace with bouffant skirt flowing into a chapel train. Her finger tip silk illusion veil fell from a pearl and lace tiara and she carried a white orchid with cascade of stepanotis on a white prayer book.

Miss Margaret Brown, sister of the groom was maid of honor. She wore a white frosted organdy ballerina dress over pale yellow taffeta with a yellow taffeta cummerbund and carried a yellow gladioli bouquet. Her headdress was pale yellow flowers. Other attendants were Misses Helene Sather and Kay McKay. They were dressed in lavender gowns similar to the maid of honor and carried lavender bouquets.

James Brown, brother of the groom was best man and the ushers were Ivan Kirkelle Jr. and Ron Benson.
The candles were lighted by

John Fields and Virgil Fields, brothers of the bride.
Mother of the bride wore an aqua lace dress with beige accessories and pink rose corsage. Mother of the groom chose a navy lace dress with white accessories and light pink rose corsage.
A reception was held, afterward in the church basement. The table was covered with lavender satin and white net, draped with lavender tulle, caught up with small bouquets of lavender flowers. The bride's grandmothers, Mrs. T. L. Fields of Rufus and Mrs. W. C. Patterson of Eugene, poured and Mrs. Basil Bains of Portland, aunt of the bride, served the cake assisted by the brides two brothers.

For her going away costume the bride wore a light grey suit trimmed with grey velvet with grey accessories and white feather hat and white orchid from her wedding bouquet.
The newlyweds will be at home in Klamath Falls, where they plan to attend college.
Out of county guests were Mrs. R. T. Dingle, Bess Pound, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lantis of The Dalles, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lantis, Hood River, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lantis, Condon, Mrs. Blanche Handley, McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Baines, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Packard of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McPherson and girls, Mrs. Opal Henkle of Lebanon.

September 12-15

Harley Tucker will bring new faces on the riders and new names on the bucking horses when he makes his first appearance as rodeo maker at the Sherman County Fair this year.

Contestants will win points here that will help decide the national rodeo championships for this is an accredited rodeo with well known performers to contest in bucking, bareback riding, calf roping and steer bulldogging. We are among the last and the competition will be keen among the riders who are anxious to perform to gain points in the race.

There'll be six races each than most any fair. In fact, does not compete with other Saturday and Sunday and if there is anything distinctive about the local fair, such meets. Purses are prettily good, too, considering the quality of the horse races. Then we have starting gates to fill them so they will be excitement it is the quality of the horse races. Good and a competent starter. And then, we like 'em.
