The Rufus Grange held a potluck dinner Thursday evening. This is the start of having group pot luck dinners preceding the grange meetings during the winter months. There will be a committee to set tables, make coffee and serve the meal. Mr. and Mrs. Will Huck will be hosts at the next meeting.

Following the dinner Mrs. Will Huck had the lecturer's program. "Rock and Roll" played on the piano by Mrs. Robert Byrd. Talk on the trip and experiences of going to 4-H summer school in Corvallis by David Reid. A vocal trio "The Bible Tells Me So" by Donna, Darlene and Janet Stehlik. Two readings "It's All in Knowing How" and "Admiral in the Making". Films on dairying were shown by Thomas Thompson, Sherman county agent.

Atlee Wilson on the card party committee, says he plans to start the parties at the grange hall in the near future.

The town of Rufus was saddened by the sudden death October 4 of Billy McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harland McDonald. Billy was in the navy in Japan at the time of his death. His body is being flown here by plane for burial.

Mrs. John Stehlik was shaken up when her car was reportedly hit from the rear by a freight truck as she was turning into Dinty's Cafe where she works as a waitress. The car was badly damaged.

A big rain fell Friday night with more Saturday. It was enough rain to stop work in the wheat fields. Tuesday morning the farmers began work in the fields which lasted until noon when a lot more rain fell.

The mission will begin Sunday with Mass at 9:45, with evening devotions at 7:30 p. m. from Sunday to Friday. Everybody is invited and is welcome.
