*If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.

QUESTION: Will Comprehensive Personal Liability Insurance take the place of the auto liability insurance I now carry?

ANSWER: No, the Comprehensive Personal Liability coverage does not apply to automobile accidents. It is written to give the average householder and his family just about complete protection in all risks except the use of the automobile.
