During the last meeting of the West Wind Riders at the Everett Winnett home a dance was planned for Nov. 23 and leather was ordered for more ties. Mrs. James Clifton and Mrs. Al Dormaier served refreshments to the following members: Mr. and Mrs. John Kellogg and Jack, James Clifton, Freddie Dormaier, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Watkins and Donnie, Mr. and Mrs. George Weedman and Guy, and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Smith, and guests Mr. and Mrs. John Overman and children.

Recent Sunday dinner guests at the Leo Watkins home were Mr.

and Mrs. E. C. Re and Peggy.

On November 24 all Rebekah lodge members will attend the Methodist church in a group.

Dorcas met recently at the home of Mrs. Trace Fields in Rufus with ten members present. They voted to send a contribution to CARE, and discussed the work that is being done in replacing the floor in the church basement. It was decided to sponsor a foodless food sale, featuring just the donation of money instead of food. Mrs. Jerry Barnett was co-hostess and refreshments were served to the members and guests, Mrs. Emma Shearer and Mrs. Zetta Carter, formerly of Vancouver. The next meeting will be a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Jerry Barnett, at which there will be election of officers.

The Tuesday afternoon Study club met recently at the home of Mrs. Ernest Shull with Mrs. Tom Jacobson as co-hostess. Guests present were Mrs. Douglas Shull and Mrs. W. A. Nisbet, and members Mrs. Lloyd Gosson, Mrs. Ed Dutton, Mrs. Eldon Lane, Mrs. Raymond VanGilder, Mrs. W. D. Watkins, and Mrs. Faye Boice who was admitted to membership. Mrs. Lloyd Gosson gave the study on soil conservation. The members voted to send Christmas packages to the mental hospitals at Salem, Fairview and Pendleton. Mrs. Leo Watkins advanced to the office of president to replace Mrs. Harold Fowler, and Mrs. Raymond Van Gilder was elected vice-president.

Mrs. Grace Medler and Mrs. Virgil Brock were in charge of refreshments at the recent Rebekah lodge meeting. For the program a pantomime was presented by Mrs. Floyd Haines who also sang a solo. Mrs. Leo Watkins reported on the United Nations committee meeting she attended recently in The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Macnab are being congratulated on the birth of their fifth child, a girl, born November 12, weighing 8 lbs. 2 oz., named Catherine Ann. Grandparents are Mrs. Bea Macnab of The Dalles and Mrs. W. F. Kelly of Willmar, Minnesota.

The Wasco unit of home extension will meet November 26 at the home of Mrs. L. P. Haven with Christmas decoration as the theme and Mrs. Dewey Thomas and Mrs. Kenneth Fridley as instructors. Those who attend are asked to bring three pine cones and some evergreens, additional supplies to be purchased at the meeting.

Friday night, Nov. 22, at 8 p. m. there will be a meeting for those interested in starting a night unit of the home extension program at the home of Mrs. W. R. Reid. If enough are present, they will elect officers and organize for the year.

Arthur Thomas has been visiting his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Thomas, from his home in Mabel, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hilderbrand announce the arrival of their second son, Donald Wilson, on Nov. 17, weighing eight pounds. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Miller of Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Moore were hosts at a potluck dinner at their home last Sunday. Enjoying the afternoon were the John Kellogs and Jack, the Lee Wilsons, Al Dormaier and George Weedmans.

Mr. and Mrs. William White are the parents of a baby girl born Nov. 6, 7 lbs, 9 1/2 oz., named Pamela Sue. She joins two older sisters. Grandparents are Mrs. Elma Jose, and Mr. and Mrs. William S. White of Lyle, Wn.

The American Legion and Auxiliary enjoyed a spaghetti dinner Saturday night. The main table was decorated with flowers and patio candles and individual card tables were centered with a single candle in a bottle to create an old-world Italian atmosphere. After dinner Auxiliary President Mrs. Dewey Thomas presented the painting of the Preamble to the American Legion constitution to the Legion, which was accepted by Commander Douglas Shull. The evening was spent playing cards, and cake and coffee was served after the games. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hill and Mr. and Mrs. George Weedman. Dewey Thomas was chairman of the affair for the Legion and Mrs. Elton Medler for the Auxiliary, with Mrs. John Hilderbrand, Mrs. Dewey Thomas and Mrs. Grace Medler as her committee.

Attending the sewing lesson on plaids and stripes in Moro were Mrs. Kenneth Fridley, Mrs. Dewey Thomas, Mrs. Tom Jacobson, Mrs. Art Watkins, and Mrs. Leo Watkins.
