

Wasco News

By Doris Nisbet

Fifty-seven young people attended the county Christmas party sponsored by the Methodist Youth Fellowship of the Wasco Methodist church. The evening was spent in recreation with a winter and Christmas theme. Participating in the worship service were Everett Royse, Alice Kaseberg, Barbara Fridley, Jim Thomas and Jean Hockett. The young people were served hot chocolate and cake by Mrs. Frank Reid, Mrs. Leroy Belshee and Mrs. Clyde Fridley.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maddox, parents of Mrs. Richard Bruner left for Columbus, Ohio, on the city of Portland Monday evening.

The Methodist Church School Christmas program will be held Sunday, December 22, at 8:00 p. m. Children from the nursery through high school will be participating.

The WSCS annual bazaar, held Friday, December 13, was reported a great success this year, when, in spite of weather conditions and illness, the women's society cleared approximately $340 from the booths and the dinner in the evening. Chairman of the dinner committee was Mrs. Vieda VanGassbeck, with Mrs. G. Harper, Mrs. Ernest Shull, Mrs. Bob Bish, Mrs. Martin Pshigoda, and Mrs. Harry Allen as her committee members. Other committees were as follows: decoration: Mrs. Estrella Halley and Mrs. Arthur Sargent; fancywork: Mrs. Lloyd Royse, Mrs. L. P. Haven, Mrs. Pauline Kaseberg and Mrs. Vern Dutton; candy: Mrs. Harry Van Gilder, Mrs. Arthur Smith, Mrs. Tom Moore; farm products: Mrs. Doug Shull, Mrs. Vern VanGilder, Mrs. Richard Bruner; pastry: Mrs. Leroy Belshee, Mrs. Dewey Thomas, Mrs. John Robinson; fish pond: Mrs. Clyde Fridley, Mrs. Carl Tuggle, Mrs. Vernon Root; postal packages: Mrs. Arthur Sargent, and Mrs. Shafer.

CARD OF THANKS

The relatives of Norman Earl Fields wish to sincerely thank the kind friends who assisted during his illness and funeral, and for the flowers and expressions of sympathy. Also for the contributions of money to the Sherman County Ambulance Fund which were given in his behalf.

A new composition roof was put on part of the Methodist church building last week by volunteer labor, headed by Leroy Belshee. The men are also busy landscaping the church grounds and installing new planters, a parking area and sidewalks.

At the last meeting of the Rebekahs the members planned the Christmas party, which will be held Saturday, December 21, a potluck dinner and gift exchange for the members and their families. S. C. Brock of Great Falls, Montana, was a weekend guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brock. Sunday dinner guests at the Brock home also were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Brock and children.
