

Moro Personals

Frank Wagner stopped in Moro last Friday while on a trip to his old stomping grounds at Shaniko. He is now retired and lives in Portland.

Clarence Sparling was up from Portland Monday to see a little rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Van Gilder made a trip to Portland Tuesday to see how Darwin was getting along. He is improving but is not ready for work yet says his doctor.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Rasmussen were in Portland Monday, a trip that resulted in a delay of at least six months in the probable heart operation of Mrs. Rasmussen.

Darwin Van Gilder is getting outside the house for short walks and gradually getting in shape for resumption of work when the doctor says his heart is OK again.

Dr. H. R. Davidson started his visits to Moro Tuesday afternoon. He will be here Tuesdays and Thursdays in the afternoon to do general medical work for those who call at his office next the Journal building.

Eilton Medler has taken on a new job and is now a representative of the Standard Insurance company which is the reason he has been in the company of Don Lewis the past week.

Glenn McLachlan is in the hospital at Heppner and his mother, Mrs. Mollie McLachlan went over to see him Wednesday.

Mrs. Mollie McLachlan recently received word from Harry McDonald who is in the Veterans' hospital at Roseburg, that he is feeling fine and appreciative of letters he received from Sherman county.

Bill Huck was up from Rufus Wednesday on business in Moro and reported that apricot trees are about to bloom along the river.

Last Saturday was Fred Greer's 79th birthday. Mrs. Greer invited friends in for a chicken dinner in honor of the occasion. Mr. Greer was in the hospital six weeks this winter and does not get around as well as usual but they both look fine. They are glad to see neighbors from Sherman county.

A pretty layette shower was given to Mrs. William Edwards at the home of Mrs. Mollie McLachlan Tuesday evening. After a few guessing games the guests enjoyed seeing the lovely gifts and the dainty lunch of cake and coffee served by the hostesses and several of the ladies.

Chester Grabenhorst is here for a visit with his brother Henry and family, coming from Salem.

Larry Sayrs is having a brief respite from the navy while on furlough between assignments. He is home for 22 days.

L&C Choir Coming

Here March 1

This outstanding choir with "music in the finest choral tradition," will be here Saturday evening, March 1. Thirty young women and 30 young men, selected by their director, Mr. L. Stanley Glarum, for a special quality of tone and technical ability comprise the Lewis and Clark college choir.

The choir will present their concert at the Sherman high school cafeteria at 8:00 p. m. The group is being sponsored by the Mariners and adult choir of the Community Presbyterian church. A free-will offering will be taken to help defray the expenses of the choir.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to express my sincere thanks to the friends in Sherman county who sent flowers and cards to me while I was in the hospital for an eye operation. I am much better now. Thanks,
Mrs. Ruth Sparling

CARD OF THANKS

Words cannot express our heartfelt gratitude for all the nice things that people have done for us at this time of our great sorrow. The beautiful flowers, the meaningful cards, the contributions, as well as the many books placed in the library in Orville's memory, certainly have been a tribute to him, as well as a reminder to us of the many wonderful friends we have. Our many thanks to all of you.

A letter to whom it may concern: I wish to thank each and every one who brought food to my home at the time when so many came to pay respects. I don't believe there is a county in the state where people are so kind, generous and thoughtful as they are in Sherman county. Some who were from other parts of the state were amazed at such a bounteous supply of food and I thank all those kind ladies who helped to serve the people.

Sincerely,
Mollie McLachlan.

Sam Brock and Charlie Siscoel went to Moro last week with the following officers who were installed in the Rebekah lodge: Juanita Long, VG; Jean Winegar, secretary; Lena Brock, treasurer; Donna Lane, warden; Virginia Peck, conductor; Edith Brock, chaplain; Sema Watkins, RSN; Gennie Hearing LSVG; Leo Watkins, inside guardian; and Selma Watkins, musician.

Rebekah lodge met here on Wednesday night and Selma Watkins installed Mildred McDonald as LSVG. All members signed cards to be sent to Flossy Haines and Sarah Adlington. A report was given on the installation at Moro. The members voted to pay their per-capita tax to the United Nations Pilgrimage Fund. Mrs. Sadie Rich and Mrs. Sam Brock served refreshments with a valentine motif. Attending were Juanita Long, Gennie Hearing, Donna Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Watkins, Virginia Peck, Jean Winegar, Edith Brock, Charlie Siscoel, Sadie Rich, Mildred McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brock, Mrs. Kirkwood and Mrs. May Brown and Maggie Barnum, both of Moro.

Recent overnight guests of Judy and Donnie Watkins were Shirley Watkins and Mike Lane.

A waffle supper sponsored by the MYF will be served Sunday night beginning at 6:00 p. m. The community is invited to come and eat all you can for 99c. The menu will include waffles, ham, milk, tea, or coffee. Come and bring the whole family. Proceeds will go to the MYF fund which is the world service fund in useful world projects through the MYF.

Sunday, Feb. 23 is the beginning of the week of dedication. Special services are being planned. The season of Lent begins Wednesday, Feb. 19 with Ash Wednesday. At the Methodist church the traditional candle-light communion service was observed Feb. 18 to begin the season of Lent. Beginning Sunday evening, Feb. 23, a Lenten film series will begin each Sunday evening, continuing thru Palm Sunday. A free will offering will be taken to help defray expenses. Film will be on Feb. 23 "Stephen, the First Christian Martyr"; March 2, "Voice in the Wilderness"; March 9, "No Greater Power"; March 16, "Man of Faith"; March 23, "Rich Young Ruler"; March 30, "Journey into Faith". The Lenten sermon series for the seven Sundays including Easter Sunday is on the general theme, "Love and the Cross". The series will trace the meaning of the seven last words that Christ spoke from the cross. A church workday was held recently on the properties of the Methodist church. Gordon Hilderbrand brought his bulldozer in to do the work of landscaping the church school area. Others participating were Clyde Fridley, Dewey Thomas, Chet Coats, John Robinson and Floyd Rathbun. Wasco Cub Scout Pack 571 will hold its annual Blue and Gold dinner in the dining and social rooms of the Methodist church. The food is to be potluck at 7:30 Thursday, Feb. 27. The awards for achievement will be presented. Ira Hill, district scout executive will be present as a guest.

Rev. Richard Bruner will be attending a leadership training workshop in Corvallis from Wednesday, Feb. 19 to Friday, the 21, taking a course on guiding intermediates.
