What they did, And how, and why, and what the neighbors said-

Harvest time is a poor time for news. Everyone is busy, no one gets sick and if they do are bundled off to a hospital to get them out of the way. Sickness, strangely, is often something that can be put off, and happily, too, when you think of it.

The farmers are making use of the long, dry days and cutting grain at their best pace piling up thousands of dollars worth of the stuff every day and feeling, per-

Mrs. J. W. Coons went to Portland Monday to attend the opening night for the dog races. She returned Wednesday.
Lloyd Johnson is home again this week after spending a part of last week in Medford attending the Oregon postmaster's convention.

Wasco News

By Doris Nisbet

Mrs. Eugene Gosson with her two younger daughters has joined her daughter, Deborah, who has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Watkins, and all will spend the rest of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hastings went to Vancouver Sunday to visit Mrs. Sadie McKean who is in the Hill Haven Nursing Home there.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tuggle were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lahmann and two sons from Carson, Wash. Spending the summer with the Tuggles is their son, Bob, and also Mrs. Tuggle's mother, Mrs. Astrid Lahmann of Olympia.

Friends of Mrs. Ed Feldman former Wasco resident, have heard that she has suffered an heart attack and will be in bed for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sargent and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Patrick and Michael spent Sunday at Camp Sherman where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Wyncoop, former principal at the Wasco school.

Ron Roysse and his girl friend from Portland visited Mrs. John Roysse and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Roysse and family during the weekend.

Mrs. Lloyd Roysse and Mrs. John Roysse attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hill in The Dalles last Saturday night, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hill.

The Rebekahs have on display at Patty O'Meara's building a clothes hamper filled with useful household articles, for which they are selling chances at twenty-five cents each. Those who wish to buy chances may call Grace Medler at Gilbert 2-5463 or Mrs. Floyd Haines at Gilbert 2-5452. The drawing will be held sometime this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tuggle report that on Monday a large whirlwind swept down upon their ranch from Gordon Ridge and tore a large fourteen-inch branch from one of the trees in their yard.

Kaye Whipple, Mary Hockett, Joe Thomas and Donald Dutton have just returned from 4-H summer camp at Suttle Lake.

Spending a couple of days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Nisbet were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Scott and Janice Baker of Heppner.

CARD OF THANKS
We want to thank our neighbors who came to our place Tuesday to help us put out the fire in our truck and grain field. It was a neighborly and kindly act and we appreciate it.
Dr. and Mrs. Frank Reid

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to the friends and neighbors who helped us put out the fire that burned over our property last Friday.

Mrs. George Fox
Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Fields have been in Condon to attend the funeral of her cousin P. A. Beeks, which was held there Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Bains came from Portland Saturday to get acquainted with their new nephew, little Rex Brown, who was born July 9, in a hospital in The Dalles. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown of Moro. The Bains returned home Sunday. The new baby is also the great grandson of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Fields.

The Home Ec. club of Rufus Grange met Thursday afternoon in the Wasco park for a picnic dinner. As it was such a busy time, not too many got to attend.

Mrs. Harland McDonald made a birthday cake in honor of Mrs. Rolland Johnson but Mrs. Johnson was unable to attend that day, so the members celebrated the birthday pro-tem.
As the chairman Mrs. Walter Morris was absent Mrs. Grace Medler acted as chairman of the business meeting which followed the picnic. The roll call was on a picnic idea. The secretary was instructed to pay for the hall and advertising for the rummage sale held recently in The Dalles. The next meeting will be August 14 at the home of Mrs. T. L. Fields with Mrs. Bert Swigart co-hostess. At this meeting the club will lay plans for the food booth at the Sherman County Fair. Mrs. Alta Smith won the drawing.

It is still warm here being cool over the weekend. So far the clouds haven't let down any rain, and the wheat farmers don't want rain at this time. They are putting in long hours to get the grain in the elevators before anything happens to it.

The fruit farmers at Rufus are harvesting a bumper crop of apricots this year. The fruit isn't too large on account of the rank crop but they are of good flavor.
Mrs. George Fox went to Vancouver, Wn., Sunday to join Mr. and Mrs. Al Jenkins when they had a family reunion at their house. Coming for the day were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Williams and son Chuck of Oregon City making 29 in all for the reunion. It was a lovely day, and the grounds were lovely.
