

Moro Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Pinkerton and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pinkerton attended the funeral services held in Portland Wednesday for Air Force Reserve First Lieutenant Charles R. Hornecker, who was killed in an airplane crash at the Portland International Airport on Sunday afternoon. The widow, Janet Hornecker, is a cousin of the Pinkertons. She was a home extension agent-at-large for Oregon during the time her husband was in Korea and spent some time in Sherman county. They have a son, Craig, a little over a year old.

Miss Pat Coats, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Coats, is in the University of Oregon hospital in Portland instead of the Shrine hospital as stated in last week's issue of the Journal. She enjoys getting mail.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Belshee left Wednesday morning for Eugene to attend the funeral of C. C. Harlow, former brother in law of Mr. Belshee, who died in Arizona, Monday.

B. H. Roberson left Saturday for Illinois on a business trip and may be able to bring his wife home from a hospital at LeMars, Iowa on his return trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles French were in Portland Friday night to attend the annual meeting of the Oregon Historical society where Stewart Holbrook was speaker to the 400 assembled. Malcolm Bauer, editor of the Oregonian, was elected president and Eugene Marsh, of McMinnville and one-time speaker before the Sherman County Historical society, was chosen vice president.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McKean were in Eugene for the WSC-U of O football game and saw their alma mater get walloped by the visitors. Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Balsiger and Collis Moore met Mrs. Moore in Bend Saturday and drove to Burns and around the Steens mountains to see southeast Oregon before coming home Monday. A number of farmers went to Arlington Monday to attend the machinery auction held near there and brought home some new equipment.

George Mimaugh, manager of U. S. Government bond sales in Oregon, was in town last Thursday as part of a campaign to encourage those with money or incomes to invest in savings.

Bird hunters are having very ordinary success, they say, the birds being well scattered after the first day and therefore hard to find.

Mrs. Darwin Van Gilder had the cast removed from her ankle Monday after a couple of months of wearing a plaster of paris Oregon boot and she expects to get into circulation again soon.

Youngsters from high school held a rally at the old football field in town Wednesday night with a bonfire, cheers, band music and the enthusiasm that goes with youth and athletic contests.

Marjorie Van Gilder and Chester Briedwell completed a two day course in light horse judging at Corvallis this month.

Darwin Van Gilder does not choose to run for mayor of Moro and does not want citizens to vote for him.

Summer weather ended suddenly Monday night when the mercury dropped to 25 at the experiment station, the lowest first frost on record. Wednesday night it was 24 to definitely establish fall as the season.

Mrs. Ray Kelso and children went to Portland this week by train for the children's benefit. Mr. Kelso went down by car to return them to their home.

CARD OF THANKS
I want to thank the many friends who sent me cards, flowers and gifts while I was in the hospital.

Rufus Personals

Mrs. George Fox
The Rufus Grange sponsored the first card party for this season at the hall Saturday night. Pinochle was the most popular game. The scores of each party will be kept and a grand prize given at the end of a series of games. Winning high at this party were Sam Brock and Mrs. Charles Blake, while consolation prizes went to Charles Blake and Mrs. Roland Johnson. The grange women served supper. The next card party at the hall will be Saturday, November 1 at 8:00 p. m.

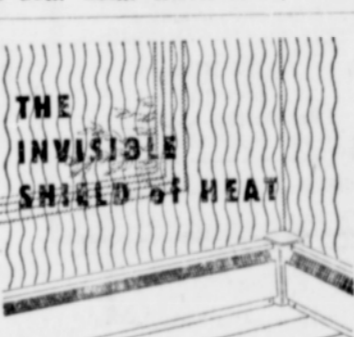

The Rufus Grange held its regular meeting Thursday night beginning with a pot luck dinner at 6:30 p. m. George Fox, master, presided at the meeting which followed. Roland Johnson read and explained several resolutions that were acted on in State Grange. Bill Huck reported on the new disease which has hit cattle in the south end of this county. Also told of the damage done to the apple crop due to the big wind storm at Hood River. Mrs. Walter Morris, home economics chairman, said H. E. club will serve lunch at the hall election day. The next club meeting will be Nov. 13 at the home of Mrs. Harland McDonald. It was reported the Past Master Tri-County club will be at Rufus October 25 with a pot luck supper at 6:30 p. m. Mrs. Grace Medler reported the Wasco Library board would like some one from Rufus to serve. Mrs. Harland McDonald was appointed to act in that capacity. Mrs. Medler reported that the Wasco Library was open Wednesdays and Saturdays from 2 to 4 p. m. Wasco has a very good library and it has been reported one of the best for its size in Oregon. Mrs. Medler also said the late Mrs. Augusta Huckin's collection of books was given to the Wasco Library for use of its patrons.

Mrs. Roland Johnson reported they are leaving October 25 on the National Grange tour to New York and points east and in Canada, and has asked Mrs. Sam Brock to take her place as chaplain in the Rufus Grange while she is away. Mrs. Brock will appreciate anyone calling her to report illness of members.
