Rufus Personals

The Home Extension unit at Rufus met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Mike Hosey at Biggs. Miss Carol Armstrong was present for the meeting to give suggestions and give the demonstration on better home lighting.

Mrs. Kenneth Spagle, president of the unit presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Bill Macnab resigned as the secretary for this year. Mrs. George Fox was then elected secretary-treasurer for the year. Miss Armstrong installed Mrs. Fox and Mrs. Hosey as the new vice-chairman. The project leaders were discussed and as many chosen as possible. Miss Armstrong talked on the nutrition workshop coming in November. On account of this workshop there won't be a meeting in November. The December meeting, Dec. 18, will be at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Spagle and the lesson will be home-made candy. Each is to bring the ingredients to make the recipe they have. Also there will be a gift exchange of something each one makes at home, such as needlework, cake, or gift of their own making.

The county committee election will be coming up soon reports Miss Armstrong and her duty will be to help plan the Spring Festival. Miss Armstrong talked on goals with a stress on membership. Mrs. Spagle suggested showing more interest in the demonstrations. Present for this meeting were Mesdames Atlee Wilson, Hattie Williams, Lavera Corwin, M. Leigh, Harland McDonald, Sammy Tsubota, Joe Morris and her new daughter in law, Mrs. Wally Joe Morris besides the others mentioned. At noon delicious apple tarts were served with coffee to go with the sack lunch each one brought. In the afternoon Miss Armstrong gave a very good demonstration on home lighting, and explained the use of colors in the home. She also showed some slides taken of some of the women modeling their dresses at the Spring Festival held in Wasco last spring.

The Past Masters of Hood River Wasco and Sherman counties met Saturday night at the Rufus hall for a pot luck dinner. A bountiful dinner was served and it seemed like there was food for twice as many as came. Mrs. William Huck had made the hall pretty with Halloween pumpkins, witches and cats. The white cloth covered table had an orange-paper ribbon down the length with four witches made of gum drops and black crepe paper at intervals. Halloween paper napkins completed the table decorations. Walter Wells from Hood River brought an apple box of lovely large red delicious apples and also some yellow delicious apples which he passed around to all present.

George Morrell, president of the club opened the meeting. Talking on legislature were Arthur Means of Wasco county and Walter Wells of Hood River. On agriculture George Fox of Sherman county, Earl Moore of Hood River and Ray Hughes and Harvey Pullen of Wasco county spoke.

There was a discussion on the Visitation of the three counties again this year, and it was decided to have a committee appointed by the Pamona masters to plan the event. The club would put up money for a door prize at each meeting for one of the granges to get.

The next meeting of the Past Masters will be the last Saturday in January and will be at Rockford Grange.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morris were among the ones going hunting last weekend.

The children of Rufus school are looking forward to the coming Halloween party this Friday night at Rufus school.

Clyde Fridley was a business caller Monday evening at the home of George Fox.

All the teachers at Rufus school attended the Teachers Institute at The Dalles last Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mathieson have finished roofing the garage on their property. The Rufus Tavern is painted a pretty green with black trim making it much more attractive.
