Mr. and Mrs. John DeMoss came home from Arizona and Las Vegas last week in time for Easter with the family. Son George and family came over from Washington for the day. Wednesday John went to Portland to start on the Grange tour of Hawaii for the coming week.

Mr. and Mrs. Collis Moore arrived Saturday, the last of the wild geese to arrive on the home grounds. They were in Portland Sunday and Monday to see his doctor although he is improving.

Sharon Searcy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Searcy of Salem, was married to Mr. Lawrence Mullins Saturday at 8 o'clock at the First Congregational church in that city. The Allan Pinkertons and the Harry Pinkertons attended the wedding and reception following. The Searcy family met for a pre-wedding dinner at the Marion Hotel, all of the immediate family being present.

The Harry Pinkertons spent Easter with their daughter, Mrs. Jarvis Black and her family in Portland. The Allan Pinkertons remained over Sunday and Monday with her parents, the R. R. Raymonds of Helix, to celebrate Easter and to visit the state legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. John Searcy left by plane Monday morning for New York. On Wednesday morning they flew to Germany to visit their daughter, Suzanne Pitman and her family. Dr. Archie Pitman is in the Army Medical service.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion McKee were here from Portland Monday with Hal Shelton of Hood River to make plans for operation of the Ed McKee ranch east of Wasco.

Mrs. Mollie McLachlan came up from Portland Monday to see about some of her property in Moro and to visit with friends for a few days.

Joe Peters, used to Arizona climate, was bedded with the flu after returning home, but is getting about again.

Eddie Shoemaker came up from Klamath Falls over the weekend to take his wife, Wilma, back with him where he has an apartment. They will both attend school, she to finish her high school work and he is attending OTI.

BORN. To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sayrs. Wednesday, April 1, at The Dalles, a daughter.

BORN. To Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Melzer, March 26, at The Dalles, a son.

Mrs. Will Grant of Nampa, Ida., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kock last week for a few days on her way to the valley to see relatives and friends. She lived here years ago as Lizzie Patjens.

Bob Chandler, owner of the Bend Bulletin, stopped in Moro Thursday morning on his way home from LaGrande where he recently bought an interest in the Observer.

Mr and Mrs Jim Wilson accompanied by Mrs Swander, widow of a former Kent minister, her daughter and husband and Mrs Ruth Tanwright, formerly Ruth Wilson, were here Thursday.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to express my sincere thanks to the women who gave their time and energy to making the Red Cross solicitation a success in Moro.

Rufus Personals

By Mrs. Geo. L. Fox

The relatives of Mrs. George Fox gathered in Rufus Easter weekend for a family reunion. Coming Friday night were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Williams, Earl and Sandra, of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Norvel Williams of Oregon City, both Ray and Norvel, are brothers of Mrs. Fox, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Jenkins of Vancouver, a sister, Saturday all were invited to dinner at the home of Mrs. Fox's daughter, Mrs. Earl Weatherford at Olex. Arriving Saturday night was Mrs. Fox's brother Charles together with his wife and children, Ronald, Keith, David, Katherine, all from Milwaukie. Sunday the family was joined by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Jenkins and daughter Micky, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Jenkins and daughters Susan and Terry of Vancouver, and Chief Petty Officer Donald Jenkins and Mrs. Jenkins, Linda and Sharon of Tacoma, Wn. All the boys are nephews of Mrs. Fox. Also coming for dinner Easter were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weatherford, Grant, Frank, Cherie and Bob of Olex. The family gathered at the Rufus Grange hall for dinner, visiting and dancing. The children enjoyed an Easter egg hunt on the lawn during the afternoon. This was the first time all the family has gotten together at one time.

Friends of Vincent Rice will be glad to hear they are parents of a baby girl named Crystal Ann. They live near Seattle and he works for Boeing. Also Vincent's sister, Jessie, who is now Mrs. Rod Newman, lives in Seattle and is a typist at Boeings and her husband is going to a school for advanced police training. The Rodmans have four girls, Cherie, Lorie, Geni and Sally. Both Vincent and Jessie lived at Rufus for a number of years and attend school here.

After a two year assignment on Guam for the USN Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Costagnola and children, Colleen and Vincie, have enjoyed a short visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Spagle. While here Vincie enjoyed a family party celebrating his 4th birthday. The family will be stationed near

San Francisco to be near her navy husband.

The Rufus school is getting set for the big Centennial dance to be held April 4 in the Rufus school gym. The women are to wear gingham and the men jeans. Hastings orchestra will furnish the music. The gym will be decorated and lunch will be served by the members of PTA social club.
