JUNIOR LADIES HAVE LIVELY TEA PARTY

The Junior Ladies Club held its silver tea in the Moro church social rooms Tuesday afternoon. The centennial theme was followed in the display of many antiques and the color scheme of Oregon's state colors, blue and gold, in the decorations. The antiques included old pictures, clothes, furniture, kitchen utensils, jewelry and many odd and interesting items of years gone by.

The tea table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of blue iris, yellow mums and daffodils. Yellow candles in silver holders and napkins decorated in blue and gold completed the table decorations. Silhouettes of a pioneer couple on the wall behind the table added to the old time atmosphere.

The program included two selections by the junior choir, "Open the Gates of the Temple" by Knapp and "Give Thanks" by Williams. Mrs. J. K. McKean directed and Mrs. David Moore accompanied at the piano. Kathy Heater played two piano solos, "The Gypsy" and "The Elf and the Fairy". Janice DeMoss played "The Easter Parade" and "Sweet Oregon" the latter having been written by her great uncle, Henry DeMoss. Mrs. Virgil Archer read two poems "The Old Home Town" and "The Circuit Rider". Mrs. Joe Heater and Mrs. Allan Pinkerton arranged the program.

Mrs. E. C. Goodenberger and Mrs. Maggie Barnum presided at the silver service. Dainty tea cookies and mints were served by the refreshment committee, Mrs. Curley DeMoss and Mrs. Andy Paulson.

Mrs. Marvin Robertson and Mrs. Terry Bucholtz were in charge of decorations and Mrs. Bob Axtell passed the guest book. Hostesses were Mesdames Goodenberger, Don Thompson, Glenn Virtue and Virgil Archer. Others assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Ted Thompson and Mrs. Andy Roulston.

RUFUS ITEMS

If the community noticed the Rufus Grange Home Ec club members leaving for club Thursday afternoon, they'd have sworn a cog was missing sceneplace along the line. Early the morning before the hostess Mrs. Rolland Johnson and co-hostess Mrs. Gladys Guy called on each one, quite early and as they were found in the privacy of their own homes were asked to appear the same way at the club meeting. Various robes, housecoats and dresses with owners inside came to the meeting the next afternoon, along with a lot of giggles and laughs. Mrs. Bert Swigart won the prize for the most outstanding character dressed in her nightgown and nylon robe.

A dessert luncheon was served by the hostesses. A beautiful floral arrangement centered the dining room table and additional card tables that were needed to take care of the record number present. Spring flowers were also used for decorations about the rooms.

the North Sherman 4-H club at 8 p. m. This is the regular teenage dance and party so all the children in the fifth grade and up are invited. Grace Medler won the drawing prize. Mrs. Rolland Johnson and Mrs. Gladys Guy told of their trip to surprise all the women the morning before and what each one said as they were told to "Come As You Are." The tri-county Grange visitation was April 16 at Rufus. The club meets May 14 at the home of Mrs. Trace Fields. Secret pal names were revealed and new ones drawn during the afternoon.
