The weather for the week has been cold, windy and now and then rainy. Such weather does not hurt the wheat and that crop has been growing right along, the late patches in the fields trying to catch up with the early wheat. Crop prospects look better than they did a month ago but are still not up to normal although there is sufficient moisture. July will be a good time to judge the results.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Keenan stopped in Moro briefly Tuesday while on their way to Bend for a company conference. He is area manager for the PP&L company

CARD OF THANKS

RUFUS DOINGS

Broiler meals was the lesson the Rufus Home Extension unit demonstrated at their meeting April 23. The unit met at the home of Mrs. Millard Leigh with demonstrators Mrs. Kenneth Spagle and Mrs. Harland McDonald. The leaders fixed the meal for all to enjoy at noon. They had hamburgers, green butter beans with corn on the under side of the meat while it was broiling. Peaches with jelly inside, a red cabbage salad, this was served with yeast rolls and coffee, then they served a broiled frosted cake with ice cream which was donated by the new ice cream drive-in which was so recently built in Rufus. Mrs. Joseph A. Sorrick the owner of the ice cream place was present to join the unit. Other guests of the club that day were Mrs. Carl Williams, Mrs. Paris Chase, Mrs. Charles Stanley who are making their home in Rufus until a work project is completed near here. The women discussed the Centennial kitchen which the Rufus unit planned for the Festival April 25.

Mrs. Kenneth Spagle, chairman, said there is to be an extension meeting in Covallis May 5 to 7 and that Carol Armstrong hopes some of the unit members can go. The interest sheet was discussed, and the members brought out what projects they would like to work on next year. The installation of officers will be held at the next meeting.

Mr. Ralph Busse, George Bell post No. 49 chairman of the local Legion oratorical contest held recently at Sherman High School, presented cash awards of $10, $5, and $2.50 to Eva Kirkelle, third place, Sharon Belshe, first place, and Peggy Reckman, second place winners. Judges were Mrs. Keith McDonald, Mrs. Frank von Borstel and Clair Balzer.

The Wasco Library plans a Festival for June 13 and they would like the Rufus Grange H. E. club to sponsor a pie and coffee booth to help out the library finances. These two clubs are also expected to have a float in the parade. This is the way the library raises money to keep the library open during the year. It is open every Wednesday and Saturday afternoons from 2 to 5 p. m.

The next Rufus Extension unit will meet May 21 at the home of Mrs. Harland McDonald with a dessert lunch at 1 p. m. The lesson will be on "How to be a Gracious Hostess."

Mrs. Will Huck had charge of the Centennial kitchen which was at the Festival at Moro Saturday. She had a fireplace with old kettles hanging about, a hot cake griddle which had hinges in the center to close it being used years ago in the coals. An earthenware churn, a spinning wheel and a hand wool carver. A coffee grinder and an old sausage stuffer, this together with chairs, dishes and lamps completed the setting. Mrs. Huck even had on a dress and bonnet with cape around her
