

Moro Personals

BORN: To Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Hart at Eugene, Tuesday, May 12, an eight pound daughter, Debbie Lynn. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Irving Hart of Moro and Mr. and Mrs. James L. Payne of Salem.

Virgil Archer is back home after a stay in a Portland hospital for an operation on his foot which is still in a cast. Darold Belshe brought him home Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Eakin of The Dalles were in Moro Tuesday evening to attend a meeting of the Sherman County Historical society of which he is a director.

Mrs. Leta Eslinger is spending a few days at the coast this week for a little vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Bucholtz returned Monday from a trip to Denver, Colorado, to visit her grandmother, who is now in her 85th year. They found Denver an interesting place with a centennial going on, a good museum and a capital building.

The county sold $1040 worth of tax foreclosed property in ten sales Wednesday to buyers in every part of the county. Most sales were for the minimum price although there was one sale in which bids exceeded the minimum.

Mrs. Ernest Goodenberger returned the first of the week from a trip into Idaho to visit her mother for a few days.

Mrs. E. Amidon is in a hospital in The Dalles recuperating from a major operation performed some ten days ago.

PCA Sending Men To Conference

Officers and directors of The Dalles Production Credit Association will be among the 50 or more credit officials attending a state agricultural credit conference at Portland June 4-5, J. Merton Stein, secretary-treasurer, announced this week.

Mr. Stein said administrative and operating problems will be aired during the two-day workshop session which is attracting the farmer and rancher directors of seven production credit associations, one or two members of the 12th District Farm Credit Board, and officials of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Spokane. The association secretary-treasurer also will attend.

The Dalles association will be represented by E. Riddell Lage of Hood River, president; Carroll Sayrs of Moro, vice-president, and Directors Paul Davenport of Goldendale, W. R. Bailey of The Dalles. Most of the officers and directors will be accompanied by their wives.

Rodeo Program Getting Attention

Some details have been worked out for the rodeo to be given June 26-27-28 at the Sherman County Fair grounds with the county fair board as sponsor. Harley Tucker will furnish the stock and its quality is known here.

There will be a Buckaroo breakfast Sunday morning from 8:00 to 10:30 with Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilson of Tygh Valley cooking the ham, eggs, pancakes and potatoes for the hungry who come to eat. The food concessionaire is to be Cliff Woffard of Milwaukie. Dodo Earl will be the clown and bull baxter. He comes from El Centro, California.

Rufus Personals

By Mrs. Geo. L. Fox

Harland McDonald, Pomona Grange master, presided at the meeting at Harlandview Saturday morning. Those going from Rufus were besides the master, Mrs. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brock, Mr. and Mrs. Atlee Wilson and George Fox. Earl Moore of Hood River who is state agricultural chairman in the grange was present for the meeting.

Rufus friends and others paid their last respects to one of their oldest residents, Frank Medler, who was buried in The Dalles Saturday afternoon. Frank Medler married a Rufus girl, Hattie Lovelace before the turn of the century, and they lived around Rufus most of the time until she passed away. Since that time Frank has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Bill Macnab who lives south of Rufus. Frank was very active for a man of his years until a recent operation. After that he was forced to use two canes to get around. Frank could tell many stories of the day Grant was a town and Rufus was just a new born town.

Dr. Frank Reid was present Thursday evening at the Rufus Grange meeting to talk on garbage disposal in the county. He represented the Sherman County Court. Dr. Reid said this issue is becoming more pronounced each year, and something will have to be done for the towns, of which Moro and Wasco feels the most urgent need.

George Fox, master conducted the business meeting, and there were a few absent officers. Roland Johnson talked on the most effective methods to trap moles and gophers. It was reported Mrs. Art Smith and Otto Petersen are ill.

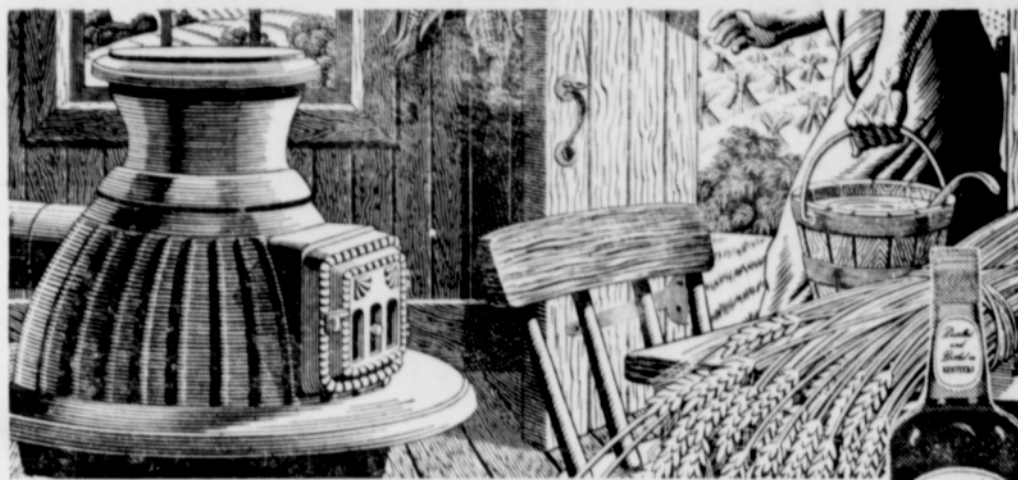

The Home Economics club of Rufus Grange sponsored a Mother's Day Tea at the grange hall Thursday afternoon. The decorating committee did a fine job of placing the many beautiful flowers. The serving table was centered with a pretty flower arrangement flanked by pink and white candles. Mrs. Joe Morris had charge of the program. Mrs. Trace Fields gave a Mother's Day reading. Jane Baker, Barbara Miller and Linda Byrd played a number on their clarinets. Miss

Karen Tsubota played a piano selection. A reading by Mrs. Morris with Mrs. Harland McDonald helping by lighting the candles. Then there was a game played by all with the result Mrs. Jean Thompson being crowned queen and Mrs. Sam Brock as runner up in the contest. Mrs. Sam Brock presided at the coffee urn, while Mrs. S. Pearson took charge of the tea. Card tables covered with cloths had already been placed about the room for the guests. Mrs. Fred Dormaier, chairman, of H. E. club was dressed in a Norwegian dress which was handed down in her family.
