

Moro Personals

A drivers license examiner will be on duty in Moro Wednesday, June 3, at the courthouse between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m.

Jack Cushman has been down in bed at home with a case of the flu since last Friday and is getting some better.

Mrs. Eugene Amidon is home from the hospital after surgery but still goes down every few days for treatments.

Lorin Winnett, deputy sheriff, went to the hospital Monday after becoming ill at the court house and the doctors kept him there for more than cursory attention.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Page were here Monday from Portland on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Balsiger drove to Portland Sunday to have dinner with his mother on her 79th birthday.

Roy Tiller stopped here Monday on his way home to Hermiston from a trip to Portland and visited relatives for a few hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Strong came home Saturday from Reno where they had spent a few days and a few dollars in company with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Platt.

Arch Fortner and Mrs. Fortner were here Friday still driving around visiting and selling.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Douma spent the weekend at Camp Sherman opening up their cabin for the summer months.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my friends for remembering me while in the hospital with many lovely gifts, flowers, letters, cards and visits.

Mrs. Eugene Amkion

There will be a bridal shower in honor of Miss Mavis Miller at the Moro church June 16 at two o'clock. Miss Miller plans to be married in July to Robert Olsen. Hostesses are Mesdames Helen Martin, Marian Boynton, Helen Sayrs, Aleta Frazer, Inez Thompson, Josephine Gentry, Bertha Beisbe and Florence Bruckert. No invitations will be sent; friends welcomed.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Stivers left Thursday for Point Loma, Calif., near San Diego, where he will take three weeks of training as a member of the naval reserve.

Mrs. Maggie Barnum, while returning home from a trip to California, fell when the bus stopped at Shaniko and broke her right arm above the wrist. Doctors at The Dalles put it in a cast and she is cheerful again.

Mrs. Florence Bruckert spent Wednesday of this week selling poppies for the American Legion Auxiliary and reported that she was finding little sales resistance on the part of citizens.

Roy Belshee was returned to a hospital in The Dalles Monday after some weeks of being at home.

Rufus Personals

By Mrs. Geo. L. Fox

The Rufus Home Extension unit met Thursday May 21 at the home of Mrs. Harland McDonald with Mrs. Atlee Wilson as co-hostess. Mrs. Ariene Rauhen whose husband is assisting the county agent, Tommy Thompson, for two weeks was a guest for the afternoon.

Miss Carol Armstrong gave the lesson which was "Being a Gracious Hostess". The ones present enjoyed it very much and a lot was derived from it. After the lesson Mrs. Kenneth Spagle called a business meeting. She thanked Mrs. Bill Huck for her part in the county kitchen at the county festival. Also Mrs. Millard Leigh for making cookies. Mrs. Spagle tried to find a member to serve on the county advisory committee; Mrs. Sammy Tsubota volunteered if no other one could be found, but she hoped some one with less to do than she can be found by next fall.

Mrs. Millard Leigh the new chairman and Mrs. George Fox the secretary-treasurer were installed by Mrs. Spagle. Afterwards the hostesses served strawberry shortcake with whipped cream and coffee.

Work was received in Rufus hat Mr. Franklin, husband of Mrs. Franklin who was the minister in the Rufus church of the Nazarene for several years, passed away Sunday in a rest home in Nampa, Idaho. He was buried at Meridian, Idaho Wednesday. Mrs. Franklin is presently pastor of a church at Glenna Ferry, Idaho.

It is also announced that Grace Franklin, daughter of Mrs. Franklin who used to be in Rufus will

Rufus Grange Hears Band Music

The Rufus Grange met at the hall May 21 with master George Fox in the chair. On the agriculture committee Rolland Johnson reported on the proper heights to cut laws during the summer. He also told of the different varieties of termites and the difficulty of getting rid of them if they get started. Mrs. Harland McDonald legislative chairman spoke of various legislation. She also told of the resolution from Pomona on the marketing of farm produce. The Rufus Grange elected Art Smith as alternate delegate for master to go to State Grange which will be at La Grange beginning the first of June.

It was reported Andy Engberg lost the tip of his finger in a lawn mower accident. Also Curt Tom has been ill and in the hospital. An entry for the parade for the Wasco Library Festival was discussed. Appointed as chairman were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Huck and Mrs. Trace Fields. The rest of the grange to assist in any way it can. The Rufus Grange voted to have a booth again this year at the fair. Harlandview sent the report they plan on putting on the 1st and 2nd degrees June 6; therefore Rufus Grange will put on the 3rd and 4th degrees June 18.

For the lecturer's program Mrs. Bert Swigart had all sing "Lead Kindly Light"; a reading "I Know Something Good About You" by Mrs. Harland McDonald; Mrs. Rolland Johnson read "What is a Girl"; a game by the group and a quiz "Promise of the Stars" by Mrs. Bert Swigart.

Pretty baskets of roses were used to decorate the Rufus stage for the grade school graduation Monday night May 25. Very pretty class programs were handed each guest at the door.

Jack Lloyd, principal, introduced Lynn Teadtke, county band leader, who lead the Rufus band in two numbers: "Achievement March" and "Little Town Band". The special awards were given by Jack Lloyd, Karen Macnab and Douglas Reid tied for valedictorian award. The salutatorian award was given to Karen Tsubota. The ones getting perfect attendance pins were Barbara and Walter Worl, Karen Macnab and Karen Tsubota who also was given the business manager award. The citizenship award was presented to Jane Baker, the school spirit award went to Keith Morris. Next came the athletic awards and those receiving certificates and letters were Bill Roberts, Wayne Liacos, Keith Morris, Billy Macnab, Doug Reid, Bill Doolin, David Blankenship, Doug Medler, and the manager award was given to Monty Cotton. The commencement speaker was Rev. Martin Quigley, pastor of the Catholic church at Enterprise. He spoke of the relationship of comparing fish to our young eighth graduates. He said this age is not too young to set up a future goal for themselves to follow. The diplomas were given out by William Huck, chairman of the Rufus school board. A reception was held in the cafeteria with the PTA serving cookies and coffee and punch. There was an enjoyed hour of visiting before the crowd broke up. Students receiving diplomas were Velma Jane Baker, William Patrick Doolin, Karen Marie Macnab, Douglas Carl Medler, Gordon Douglas Reid, and Karen Takako Tsubota.

Jack Lloyd, principal of Rufus school took the eighth grade graduates for their skip day to Jantzen Beach Tuesday, May 26. The whole school had a picnic on the Rufus school grounds Wednesday. They secured a grill and cooked hamburgers out in the open. The parents of the children attended.
