Howard Stone President - General Manager

Stone was the Arlington, Or. Oregon Store Manager for Braden Tractor & Equipment Co. from 1936 to 1950 and in 1950 was named General Manager for the entire Braden Tractor & Equipment Co. operation. In 1956, Stone became President and General Manager of the Stone Machinery Co. with stores in Walla Walla and Dayton, Washington and will continue as President of the new expanded organization.

Alf Traneth Secretary-Treasurer

Traneth started with Braden Tractor & Equipment Co. in 1946 and from 1950 to 1956 was Parts Manager at the Walla Walla store. In our new operation, Traneth will continue as General Parts and Service Manager, a position he has held since 1956 as well as Secretary-Treasurer of the organization.

FOR Sherman and Wasco Counties

We are pleased to announce our appointment as Caterpillar Dealer for the territory previously served by Empire Machinery Co. Stores are now ready to serve you at Pendleton, Arlington, The Dalles, Oregon, and Walla Walla Wash. We have been, since 1956, the Caterpillar Dealer for Walla Walla and Columbia Counties in Washington and a portion of Umatilla County, Oregon. We are proud of our reputation for fair dealing and prompt efficient service. We will do everything we can to carry on this tradition and give you the best possible service.

Although Stone Machinery Co. is new in your area, several of our people and stores are the same ones that have been serving you for many years through Empire Machinery Co. We sincerely hope you will drop in soon to say hello and get acquainted with some of our new people.

You are the most important part of our business. If we can help you in any way, please let us know.
