Polio Clinics Dated For Second Try

Weather conditions in Sherman county prevented some of the planned immunization clinics taking place last week.

The Advisory Council announces the Health department's new schedule as follows: February 3, Grass Valley 10:30 to 11:30; Moro 1:30 to 2:30.

February 8, Antelope 11:00 to 12:00; Kent, 1:00 to 2:00.

All will be held at the grade schools.

In addition to diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus & small pox immunizations for children of grades 1-4 and 7, polio shots will be offered. Individuals wishing polio shots must be present during the time indicated. Pre-school children who are to be immunized must be at the clinics at the beginning of the clinic hour.

The polio shots are offered to the people (all ages) of the county by the Sherman County Chapter of the National Polio Foundation. The booster shots, which are recommended by the Council for those persons who have had two years elapse since their third polio shot, or last booster shot, will be financed by organizations in the county.

Providing the necessary funds for the booster shots are:
Grass Valley Rebekahs $10.00
Wasco Rebekah lodge 10.00

The necessary amount ($30.00) for the Moro community is being given by the Rebekah lodge and the Eastern Star social club, with possibly some help by other organizations.

Rufus Personals

By Mrs. Geo. L. Fox

There had been predictions that the weather would be warmer this week, but so far we haven't seen it in Rufus. Monday and Tuesday you took your life in your own hands just to venture outside the house, it was that slippery. It rained a bit Monday night, and everything was a glare of ice Tuesday. One of the neighbors left his car a minute to run into the Rufus postoffice, and when he came out, he saw it under the Rufus Tavern window.

The force of the runaway car rammed a hole into the side of the building. The bumper on the car saved it from much damage. The weather was in the forties Tuesday and where the sun hit, it melted quite a bit, but in the shade it melted very slowly.

Carol Murray, the reporter of the Knitting Queens, a 4-H club, sent in this report. They met Jan. 18 at Rufus school with their leader Mrs. Carl Thompson. A guest for the afternoon was Teresa Taylor of Rufus. Their meeting was called to order by the president Barbara Worrell. Louana Burnett led the pledge to the flag, and Nancy Macnab led the 4-H pledge. The members discussed the club goals. Mrs. Thompson reports she is very pleased with the progress the girls have made with their knitting.

The Home Extension unit at Rufus met Jan. 28 at the home of Mrs. Millard Leigh, the lesson was at 10:30 on Home Nursing and the Care of the Sick. Friday between 7 and 7:30 p. m. the Wasco grade school will have ball games with the Rufus students. The boys basketball team will play and the girls volleyball team will play, and the games will be in the Rufus school gym. The grade school boys should be decked out in the new uniforms that the Rufus P.T.A. group bought this last fall. This same group bought uniforms for the girls a couple of years ago.

Hatfield Points To Success With Requests

Governor Mark Hatfield Sunday told a television audience President Eisenhower had complied with a series of requests for Oregonians during the past ten months.

Hatfield, appearing on the KGW-TV program Viewpoint, said he conferred personally with the President March 14 of last year and made these appeals: Continuation of the Navy dry dock in Portland, provision of beginning funds for Green Peter dam, an appropriation for Yaquina Bay project, top-level representation at The Dalles dam dedication program, cooperation on a power intertie between the northwest and California.

Portland won the dry dock contract, the President recommended Green Peter and the Yaquina Bay projects in his budget message this week, he sent Vice President Richard Nixon to represent him at The Dalles dam, and studies on the intertie are underway after conference between Hatfield and Governor's Brown of California and Rosellini of Washington. "We are very gratified at the working relationship which has been developed during this past year with The White House," Hatfield said.

The Past Matrons' club met Monday, January 18, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Sargent. Mrs. Carl Tuggle was cohostess. Members present for the afternoon of bridge and canasta included Mrs. Bill Nisbet, Mrs. Hugh White, Mrs. Vern Dutton, Mrs. Ernest Shull, Mrs. Walter Bruckert, Mrs. Keith McDonald, Mrs. Harry Van Gilder and the two hostesses. Mrs. Patrick received the guest prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Roysse drove to Portland Tuesday for the day.

The potluck dinner Jan. 18, which was sponsored by the Wasco Women's Study club, was well attended in spite of the inclement weather. The Burnapps were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pinkerton of Moro during their visit here. Other guests coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Johnson of Salem, who were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Trace Fields. In keeping with the season Mrs. Carl Tuggle furnished the table decorations of tiny snowmen, which carried out the winter scene motif. Mrs. Walter Bruckert showed slides taken on their trip to Mexico. Due to the absence of so many of the officers and directors, hostesses in charge were Mrs. Mabel Haven, Mrs. Gordon Harper and Mrs. Esther Roysse.

Last Friday Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Haines visited in the Leo Watkins home. Floyd assisted with some inside painting, and the two couples enjoyed lunch together.

The Rebekah bake sale earned $26 for the ladies, in spite of the snow storm. The polio clinic at the Wasco grade school on the same day attracted a number of people, but not as many as was hoped for.

January 30 and 31, the MCSCA will play host to the Oregon Horseman Assn. at the Fort Dalles Riders' clubhouse. There will be a pie social and dance Saturday evening and a business meeting will be held on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hilderbrand were recent Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Byars.

The potluck dinner at Wasco Methodist church will start at one next Sunday. Rev. and Mrs.

Ernest Goodenberger of Moro will be guests and following the dinner they will show slides and tell of their missionary experiences in China.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hilderbrand entertained with a potluck dinner and evening of card playing Friday. Couples present for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rathbun, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Belshe, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hilderbrand, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Medler, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Don McDermid and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Byars.
