4-H CLUB NEWS

"Hems" was the subject of the demonstration given the Handy Girls Clothing Club, March 21, by Darlene Gochbauer and Diana Henrichs, at the Sherman High School. They showed us eight different kinds of hems, including a tailor's hem with the bias interfacing, the Bishop method hem, a rolled hem suitable for a silk scarf and others suitable for winter dresses and coats.

In the evening the girls, who are two of our junior leaders, gave the same demonstration to an extension group.

Our little girls are working hard on stuffed toys and the second group is making aprons.

The Come and Get It cooking club with leaders Gwen Ross and Vada DeMoss met March 14 at 3:30 in the Moro church. A peanut butter cookie demonstration was given by Janice DeMoss and Mike Alsop.

The club plans to entertain another cooking club in the future. Judy Ferrell, reporter

Like to go on a fishing trip? This was one of the topics discussed at the Happy Healthsters 4-H club meeting March 29.

The meeting was called to order by President Gary Irzyk. Donald Martin lead the club in the 4-H pledge. The roll call was taken by Fred Hall, secretary. Fourteen members were present. Those absent were Kenneth Thompson, Richard Grabenhorst and William Rayon. The minutes were read and approved. Fred Hall read a report on "Space Medicine." Kenneth Thompson and Richard Grabenhorst also had reports but were not there to read them. They will give them next time with Robert Drinkard and William Rayon.

Our leader, Steven N. Stivers, told us we could plan a trip to Deep Creek, to do some fishing next meeting. We discussed it and will go on the 30th of April and 1st of May. The trip will be well chaperoned and only members of the club will go.
