By Pauline Broughton

Mrs. Larry Eddings entertained at a birthday party Friday morning in honor of the birthday of her daughter, Teri, who was five years old Sunday. Decorations were in pink and yellow, and carried out a circus theme. The birthday cake was decorated with a clown and tiny circus animals. Those present were Mrs. Robert Nisbet, with Annette and Kenny; Mrs. Clyde Fridley, and Stuart; Mrs. Gordon Hilderbrand, Donnie and Danny; Mrs. Elton Medler, Dean and Jimmy; Mrs. Martin Pshigoda and David; Mrs. Richard Skiles, Patricia and Shawn, (the latter celebrated his first birthday on that date), Gail Gosson and Patti Sue Winegar. Sending a gift but unable to attend because of illness was Margaret Coats.

At a meeting recently of the Oregon State Mother's club, Mrs. Leroy Belshee was elected vice-president from this district.

Sergeant Thouvenel of The Dalles, an 18 year veteran of the State Highway Patrol, was a guest speaker at the meeting of the Wasco Girl Scouts recently. He discussed safety rules and gave an explanation of his official duties, after which he answered a multitude of questions put to him by the girls.

Mrs. Gordon Harper accompanied Art Macheel to Portland Saturday where she acted as baby sitter for her grandchildren while Mr. Macheel assisted the Leland Andersons in a move to their new home at Salem. Mr. Harper drove to Salem Sunday to bring his wife home. Little Pamela Anderson came home with them for a visit with them and her maternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Art Macheel at Biggs.

Mrs. L. L. Kaseberg, Mrs. Larry Eddings and Mrs. Bill Broughton attended a sub-district meeting of the Methodist WSCS at Hood River on last Wednesday.

Mrs. Paulen Kaseberg presented an interesting and colorful review of the book, "Great and Glorious Physician," at the regular meeting of the Wasco M.E. WSCS April 20.

Mrs. Hildred Zell entertained the members and two guests of the Tuesday club at her home last week. Guests were Mrs. L. L. Kaseberg and Mrs. Keith McDonald. Others present were Mrs. L. P. Haven, Mrs. Roland Johnson, Mrs. Art Smith, Mrs. Harry Van Gilder and Mrs. Estelle Hailey. High honors went to Mrs. Kaseberg and Mrs. Haven.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hildred Zell were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cash, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fisk, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Poorman and Mrs. Alice Anderson, all of Portland.

Rev. and Mrs. Larry Eddings and children spent Monday and Tuesday at Eugene, where Rev. Eddings attended a meeting of Junior Hi Camp deans. They also visited at Springfield.

Marian Rebekah lodge was represented at the district convention held in Moro April 21. Present for either the afternoon or evening session, or both, were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brock, Mr. and Mrs. John DeMoss, Mrs. Elva Dehler, Mrs. Lane, Mrs. Grace Medler, Mrs. Harold Melzer, Mrs. Pearl Brackett, Mrs. Martin Pshigoda, Mrs. Bill Long, Mrs. Bill Broughton and Charles Sisco. Two candidates from Wasco were initiated at the evening meeting. They were Mrs. Tom Moore and Miss Judy Watkins.

Mrs. Harold Winegar spent from Wednesday until Saturday as a patient in a Dalles hospital. She had minor surgery during her stay there.

New residents of Wasco are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mansfield, Christine, Carola and Connie, who moved here recently from Palouse, Washington. Mr. Mansfield is employed at the Dave Miller shop, and the family is at home in the Art Smith property. Mrs. Mansfield is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Shull of Wasco.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kaseberg moved to The Dalles last week where they will be closer to medical care. They sold their new home in Wasco to Mr. and Mrs. David Richelderfer who have moved in.

Members of the Wasco MYF are invited to attend the MYF sub-district rally in Dufur May 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brock left last Friday for Coos Bay, where they will visit their daughter and son in law, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Banta. Mr. Brock planned to be there for opening of trout fishing season April 23.

A number of Wasco residents were on hand at the DHS auditorium last Sunday to hear the first concert presented by the Community Band. Several Sherman county musicians are members of the band.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sargent spent several days last week at Corvallis, looking after their grandchildren while the parents, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Neville, were away on business.

Though the attendance was disappointing, those present at the social held by the Wasco Wesleyans Saturday night, all reported a merry evening. Proceeds went to the chair fund at the church. Miss Carol Armstrong of Moro provided instruction in folk games and square dancing, after the fried chicken and other yummy foods contained in the ladies' boxes had been consumed. Those present voted to try a repeat performance.

Mrs. Elva Dehler joined a group of ladies from The Dalles Saturday, for a trip to Condon, where she acted as a page at the Pythian Sister District No. 6 convention. This district included Hood River, The Dalles, Prineville, Bend, and Condon. The ladies returned to their homes Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Watkins and Donnie, and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Smith, motored to White Salmon Sunday to attend a cowboy breakfast there. They discovered on arriving affair had been cancelled. Not to be cheated of their Sunday outing, the Smiths went on to Portland to visit friends, while the Watkins family went to Lane, Mrs. Grace Medler, Mrs. Harold Melzer, Mrs. Pearl Brackett, Mrs. Martin Pshigoda, Mrs. Bill Long, Mrs. Bill Broughton and Charles Sisco. Two candi-turned home via Goldendale and reported seeing a total of 14 deer along a stretch of the Klickitat grade.

Mrs. Leo Watkins and Mrs. Floyd Haines accompanied Rebekah Assembly President Ruth Vose to Joseph Tuesday, where they attended a Rebekah meeting. They returned to Wasco Wednesday.

About sixty were present at a shower sponsored jointly by the Wasco Extension unit and the American Legion Auxiliary for the Raymond Van Gilder family, who lost their home and most of their possessions in a fire last week. Many who could not attend sent gifts for the family. The ladies of the organizations served cake and coffee. The affair was held in the social rooms at Wasco Methodist church.

Little Julie Roe, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rothery, was operated on at Dornbecher hospital in Portland this week.

Lt. James Griggs recently completed his basic course as an army officer at Fort Benning, Ga.
