Portland Meadows Improved By Lessee

Since horse-racing has always been a great thrill to people in this county everyone who can arrange to make an immediate trip to the "New Portland Meadows" should do so.

A complete remodeling of the old Turf Club and Clubhouse has brought forth a glass-enclosed, table-lined, terraced balcony from which you can see every foot of the track. The remodeling also included piped-in heating and air-conditioning.

There is a new feeling of friendliness apparent. Mr. Funk and his charming wife are making every effort to provide comfort and pleasure for their patrons.

A charcoal broiler has been installed, particularly for the melt-in-your-mouth steaks. The food is excellent and a wide variety is offered at very nominal prices. By calling the Meadows for reservations special dinner parties of any size may be arranged.

Franz, who spent eight years at the Stirrup Room in the Mulnomah Hotel preparing the excellent food served there, is greeting many acquaintances and friends from this area. June 20 and 27 Quarter Horse racing will be added to the Thoroughbred racing program and special entertainment is being planned for the fans.

Mr. David Funk of Western Greyhound Inc., one of the principal owners of Portland Meadows and its executive vice-president is taking his first fling at horse Betty Reckman and Alice Eslinger, girls sponsored by the Auxiliary to Girls State in June, were introduced.

Rita Hattrup was announced as the Poppy girl. Mrs. Frank von Borstel was presented with a gift from the Auxiliary members wishing her a pleasant trip to Europe. Mrs. Donald von Borstel also presented her with a gift.

Cookies, punch and coffee were served by the hostess.

track management and is every bit as successful as he is at his other enterprises.

Pop Uken, Solly Palmer, Alf Parkey, Bob Baze and many of the other familiar horse owners are making it clear that the scope of improvements will bring about a steady increase in the racing program. The "back stretch" people are really excited over the improvements already accomplished as well as new facilities under way.

Plans are under way for a Sherman County Fair Derby to be included at Portland Meadows as a special event.
