

Moro Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Woods will observe their 50th wedding day Sunday, June 5, at their home, 1319 NE 114th Avenue in Portland from two to five, according to an announcement sent this office from their daughter, Mrs. Claude Irons of Pendleton. Mr. and Mrs. Woods were married at the home of Julia Woods Hansen in Moro. Friends are invited.

Mrs. Gwen Ross has been named Sherman county chairman for the 1960 Jefferson-Jackson day dinner which will be held in the Pythian building in Portland May 28. Stuart Symington will be the speaker at this $25 per plate fund raising dinner.

J. E. Norton is home again after two months spent in hospitals in Eugene and The Dalles and is getting around under his own power a little each day.

Bill Hall left Tuesday morning for Spokane to attend the meeting of the Northwest Crop Improvement association at which the state wheat breeders will report on new kinds of wheat.

Wes Fuller came up from Portland last Thursday evening to cast his vote in Sherman county and visit awhile with old friends.

A drivers license examiner will be on duty in Moro Tuesday, June 7 at the court house between the hours of 9 a. m. and 4 p. m.

Guests of Mrs. Vernon Platt Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cauthers and daughter, Fern, of Orange, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Cowin and son, Al, of Seattle, Wash. Thursday evening all were dinner guests at the Bob Axtell home.

Stewart Patty, Harry Johanson and Les Litwiller, all of the First National Bank headquartered in Portland were here Friday and Saturday partly on business.

CARD OF THANKS
I want to thank the voters of both parties who supported me for the nomination as assessor at the primary election.

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to thank the friends who remembered me with cards and flowers during my stay in the hospital.

Mrs. Joe Heater, Mrs. Raymond Kelso and Mrs. Ralph Busse, were hostesses at the Busse home Thursday evening May 19, for a stork shower honoring Mrs. Loyd Belshe and infant son, Scott. Winners of the prizes for the two games played were Mrs. Chet Coats, Mrs. Tex Irzyk, Mrs. David Moore and Mrs. George Geiser. Others attending were Mrs. Bob Boynton, Mrs. Bob Belshe, Mrs. Max Belshe, Mrs. Wendell Axtell, Mrs. G. Douma, Mrs. Joe Peters and Mrs. Carroll Sayrs.

Sending gifts, but unable to attend were Mrs. Jim Brown, Mrs. A. Douma, Mrs. Bill Hall, Mrs. Alice Lavendar, Mrs. Frank Sayrs, Mrs. Paul Fraser, Mrs. Dem Schmitt and Miss Jerrine Blaylock.

Two different kinds of cake and coffee were served.

BORN: To Mr. and Mrs. George Moreau Wednesday night, May 25 at The Dalles, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Conlee and Mrs. Maggie Barnum, attended the all Indian rodeo at Tygh Valley Sunday afternoon.

Clyde Gillmor is in Salem this week end getting a new truck equipped for duty on this stretch of highway. He will return Tuesday.

Mrs. Vernon Platt left Wednesday morning for Heppner to care for her grandchildren there while Bob and wife attend the Elks convention at Medford.

Rufus Personals

By Mrs. Geo. L. Fox

The Rufus Grange met May 19 for its second meeting this month. George Fox, master, was in charge. Mrs. Harland McDonald, legislative chairman, reminded all to get out to vote. Mrs. Grace Medler, home ec chairman, said the next meeting would be June 9 at the home of Mrs. Art Smith in Wasco. She said over $60 was made on the quilt which the club made last winter. Mrs. Alta Smith won the quilt at the drawing the day of the smorgasbord. Mrs. Harland McDonald, chairman of the auditing committee, said the grange books were audited and found in good order. Roland Johnson on the building committee commented on the new steps at the grange hall as a big improvement. The members voted to send a letter of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Trace Fields who so kindly furnished the gravel and used their tractor and blade to level the yard. The grange master thanked the men who gave their time and effort to make the steps before the big dinner.

Mrs. Rolland Johnson said she and Mrs. Millard Leigh met with the county court and asked them to improve some of the bad corners in the county. She said there is a lot of opposition to aerial spraying, as it is killing birds and doing damage in other ways. Allee Wilson said the first spray for mosquitoes was put on the stagnant water May 19. For the literary program Mrs. Rolland Johnson read the definition of "Weather." Each one present was asked for an old proverb on the weather. "The Weather Man" was read by Miss Mary Brackett. An action game "A Day On the Farm" by all. A questionnaire pertaining to presidents. A game "tossing pennies by the men, and card tossing by the women." To end the program the lecturer read "Weather." It was announced Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reid are having their 50th wedding anniversary May 29. The grange voted to give the proceeds of their penny drive to the sale of the American Legion poppies. Rolland Johnson asked if the grange wanted to have a float for the memorial day parade and they said they would try. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Bert Swigart and Mrs. George Fox.

The Altar Society of St. Mary's Catholic church at Wasco met May 17 with Mrs. Kenneth Malloy in The Dalles at their new home. After showing her home, Mrs. Malloy showed them the patio and large yard in the rear where Mill Creek runs roaring past.

Mrs. Don Macnab, president of the Altar Society opened the meeting and found present the secretary Mrs. Bob Nisbet, Mrs. Dimmick, Mrs. Bill Reid, Mrs. Tom Macnab, Mrs. Morris Burnett, Mrs. Bill Macnab, Mrs. Leland Medler, Mrs. George Fox, and Rev. John O'Connor, pastor at Wasco. The main discussion was the summer school beginning next Tuesday in Wasco. After the meeting Mrs. Bill Macnab and Mrs. George Fox served refreshments. To make the site of the Malloy home more interesting was the fact that Mrs. Bill Macnab's brother, Francis Medler, had lived there for some time a few years back until they bought a new home on 17th street.

Mr. and Mrs. Norval Williams of Oregon City came Saturday to spend the night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Fox. Williams is a brother of Mrs. Fox. Sunday all went to Tygh Valley to see the all Indian Rodeo, and there met another brother of Mrs. Fox, Charles Williams, his wife and four children, so all had a good visit as well as seeing the rodeo. Also seen there from Rufus were Virgil Matney, Mrs. Mae Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Cazier and their grandson and a niece, Diane Cazier and Mr. and Mrs. Sitton.

The wind blew here all week and it was quite cold. A little fire felt good most of the week. This week the clouds are hanging heavy in the heavens and at times a bit of rain falls, but it looks like it is warming up a little. With the rank growth of the wheat and crops it is a good thing it is cool as a hot dry spell would do a considerable damage to the crops.

It seems like a bad time of year for the flu to go around. So many have had bad colds and are sick. Lianne Morris, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morris, was taken to the hospital in The Dalles last Thursday suffering with pneumonia, but she responded to treatment. Mrs. Leonard Jordan, the Rufus postmaster, was sick with a cold last week and over the weekend. Leonard was searching for a drug store that was open Sunday in The Dalles to get her a new supply of medicine.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Swigart moved last Saturday to the spot where they had made ready to park their new trailer. The spot is by the Telephone building which is going into Rufus with a new service for the residents living between the John Day and Deschutes rivers. The telephone company expects to have the service ready the latter part of June.
